A Message From the Headmaster

During the past school year the national and international scene seemed to be rife with crises, each of which provided much fodder for the media: the threat of SARS, Mad Cow disease, the coming of the West Nile virus, unstable stock markets, war in Iraq and Afghanistan and the perpetual human drama of suicide bombers, political challenges and human tragedy in the Middle East. Quite simply, on a purely emotional level, the world beyond our gates was a difficult canvas against which we were expected to inspire young minds and hearts. But what these events have demonstrated is that the world continues to face challenges – serious problems. But like all problems in life, they can and must be managed, and this is perhaps the greatest challenge that we have in schools: preparing the next generation of leaders to be confident and well equipped to lead with confidence, but in their own way. Indeed, the world can be a difficult place and life is sure to have its bumps. However, I believe we prepare our graduates to be contributors, problem-solvers and leaders who will address problems head-on rather than remain on the sidelines. This year as a group of faculty and students we have achieved a lot that we can be proud of. Early in the school year we acknowledged the solemnity of the first anniversary of the tragedy of the September 11th attacks. In October, a delegation of teachers and students traveled to Germany to attend the annual Round Square Conference, where after a two-year application process, Stanstead College was officially welcomed into that international association of schools. In doing so, we have opened a world of opportunities to our students: exchanges, conferences and service projects abroad. Next September another student delegation will travel to the annual RS conference – this time in South Africa – with presentations planned from Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Nobel peace laureate Nelson Mandela. Round Square is a fantastic vehicle for growth and learning with a global perspective. I urge all students and parents to consider how to be involved in the future. I also look back over the past ten months and see vivid images of the many athletic teams that represented the school this year. Regardless of results, I always witnessed a strong sense of pride in the athletes wearing our red and white school colours. I continue to receive calls and letters from other schools about Stanstead athletes' excellent comportment and sportsmanship – the pride they display in an age where those standards are seemingly fading away in many other schools. We also had students proudly represent Stanstead in a host of co-curricular activities: public speaking, model U.N., community service initiatives to name a few. Here too our students represented us well and surely grew through their exposure to new challenges beyond the classroom. It is important to remember the impact of the recent Gulf War on our international school community. With the American military initiative in Iraq in late March and Canada's decision not to be involved, one might have expected fractious problems to have developed in our school; but interestingly, they did not materialize. For me, the absence of such trouble here speaks volumes. I feel it is because our students have learned to be genuinely respectful of each other's different backgrounds and perspectives – even on matters as sensitive as the Iraqi conflict. The respect they demonstrated this year was particularly impressive. This brings me back to an important word I shared with all of the graduates at the formal dinner dance in June: passion. To learn, to live, to strive with passion is what makes a difference in life and here at school. Those who really care about something or someone are the ones who have the most notable impact on what they do in life and in their communities. We want each Stanstead student to find their passion and strive to work for what is most important to them. I urge all graduates to do so with Stanstead College in their heart and a willingness to lead and be accountable for their actions. If that is how our graduates will behave, then we will have truly played an important part in moulding citizens who know the importance of passion in a world that is begging for more care and guidance. Finally, I would like to offer thanks to our Trustees, Faculty and Staff who have all been selfless in helping to provide a first-class educational environment. Our faculty in particular have worked closely with the students – teaching, coaching, advising and guiding. I thank them and our support staff for another year of exceptional service to our students and for making Stanstead College a special learning community where we are able to make a positive impact on the lives of young people.

The Spectrum Creed

We capture life, what's ours and what's not.
old friends not to be forgot.

We capture truth and Stanstead life
destiny, fate, and strife.

We capture photos of everything summer, fall, winter and spring.

We capture everything that we see,
and design it to the best degree

We capture what we wish could be, classes, sports, and activities

We capture goals, fears and dreams
what we do, and our teams.

We capture memories for you and me,
of past, and present, and what will be.

I 2th Grade

TEDDY ASTONO

3 years in Stanstead is like watching sunrise, it's seems so long yet it's very brief. The result however, is clear. My life has been brightened up. Thanks to my parents again, for giving me the most support. This is the place where I actually grew up, the place I could call my second home. Thank you all who have helped me through this place for 3 years. Mr. Telling, there's nothing to say about you, still and will always be the greatest advisor. Ms. Getty, thanks for being there when I am dazed and confused. Mme. Ledoux, thanks for helping me out with advice and all those reservations. Mme. Martineau, merci pour avoir me motiver, coach(un jour, je vais battre ton record!!). Mr. Denny, and Mrs. Retchless, thanks for the guidance. Mr. Scheib, thanks for the free "counselling" session, your advice has been very helpful for me. Mr. Wells, thanks for the helping me out with the recommendation forms. Lucy, thanks for being a mother all the time throughout this year. Mr. Fitopoulos (Lazo), you're the man, dude! Thanks for everything. Finally, the laundry ladies, and the maintenance staff, and Maida thanks for everything. And to all my friends, thanks for everything, all of you will last in my memory. "Things that don't kill you will make you stronger." - My German friends, my hat goes off to you.

SANY CHAN

My grade 12 life was actually pretty good, I met a lot of new friends and I had a lot of great memories... I can't believe that I have to leave soon, 4 years have passed so quick, tooo quick.. I wasn't in school a lot this year, but I think this year will be the year that I remember the most because of all the things happened to me and I also learned a lot more about life, seeing things around me changing. I will never forget all the time I had in Stanstead and the last break I had, I got so many surprises from people because I will be 18 soon. Thanks to all the teachers that taught me.. my advior, Mr Wells. To friends, thanks to my Chinese people, they are all like my brothers or sisters, always taking care of me. Michael teaching me calculus during study~ you are the one who helps me getting into university~ never forget this. Sister cooked rice for me to eat! During break, talking in the Japanese restaurant about our love experiences with mark, vivien, sisters. frank, jan.. To all Korean friends, the grade 12's, especially to my "sai low" and the one I was with, it was very great to meet you guys!! We had fun during break. Remember come to visit me!! I will come back to visit all of you and I always welcome you all to come. Always remember me in the future...wish you guys all the best and good luck!!

GABY COBURN

It's over! The day that I have been waiting for has come at last. I look back on my years of Stanstead and think of it, as a challenge. One where I could prove to everyone that I could do it. Mom and Dad thanks for sending me and not backing down no matter how much I complained. Miss. Campbell you have helped me the most, even when you weren't very happy with my actions you still stood behind me. Thank you! Louis you're an old man, thank you. Sany, you can do it! I'll miss you. Have a nice life everyone! "Half the world is composed of idiots, the other half of people clever enough to take indecent advantage of them."

-Walter Kerr

ANDREW COPESTAKE

Be sincere; be brief; be seated.

-Franklin D. Roosevelt

ANTHONY DEL PINTO

This year is FO SHOOOOO OVER!! First and for most, the parentals, I owe everything to you guys thanks for the year...And my boys back at home, don't worry, we've got all summer to make up for this year! Cookie you were my motivation, Thanks....Now, for the Stanstead friends, thanks for making this year a lot more enjoyable. Sonny bro. Paul, last name Job Not only do you have free tickets to the show, but you are VIP, on the guest list. FOGS, round 3 and I've never seen a person pick up a language so fast. ROB, FO SHOW repin the NYC, love you dawg Veillette. Frenchman. Boucher. Le gros man!! creee. Remember golf and the highway! Forino, I know you love those imitations I do haha BOYS! Tristan.(got milk?) you light weight, out cold by 1030, snow taste good? BO, the year is over. Osei and Chad, despite the fact that you are both black...you are the whitest kids in the school haha, good times, peace. Nacho, you crazy Mexican, good times! Do you like MTL? M.Rioux LET'S GO BOYS, THIS WILL ONLY TAKE 30 SECONDS And best for last, the LADIES, ohhhhh the Stanstead girls, where do I start, what can I say.....

NICOLE DESJARDINS

Yeah we're swift. Riight. So many memories, idiosyncrasies, pedagogical stuff, dreams, heartaches, and fantabulous discoveries... they're far too many. My best friend, you will forever hold my heart, I've learned so very much from you sweetie. My girls, I'll love you forever and for always. For my small one, babe you had me at hello. Tdot, the force is strong in you, please do not harm the ducklings. My baby, Anyya, sorry I couldn't always be there. Even as your mother, I'll never be able to thank you for all that you have taught me—camping, cookie-dough, message-in-a-bottle, cheerios. My little Leigh, always good for a laugh, follow the worm, he'll lead the way. (Stay away from covered bridges.) Matt thanks big bro~ I love u man! You put up with more than any person ever should, especially your legs. My squirrel, Sandy, you taught me what it means to be a friend! I will not say bye to any of you because the time that we were together is the time to remember, if we never meet again our adventures are in my heart for always, for you are all "special" and have made a better person of me. All of those whom I haven't mentioned you know that I love you, Louis, Roomie, Mr. Tinklesworth, my Mom and Dad, you give me strength. (FRITZY, because he begged) May everyone have luck in all of their endeavors and remember ME most of all! Hugs and Kisses, Love and Wishes.

MATTHEW EMRICH

I guess I will try to keep this short. - As you know grad write-ups are all sort of the same. - First a huge thank you to my parents, and family for supporting me on my ongoing endeavors in life. As well for lifting me up when there have been times of frustration, and confusion. Want to say thanks to all my friends you know who you are. A couple of memorable times this year, New York City class trip, and May Canoe trip. Hey Pinto, "Don't touch it" too funny, by the way try not to race that Integra to hard! Rhett and Dave great times, I am sure I will see you around Grade 12 day students maybe you will have better luck next year parking behind Webster. God knows I did not get very far!

JONATHAN FOGLIETTA

Hi, my name is Jon and I enjoy long walks by the beach as well as... Wait, this isn't going into the personals? Well in that case, I would just like to thank my family and all my friends for supporting me over the years. To my friends here at Stanstead I just have a few things to say, Crazy Hand- We had some good times... And I don't think I have to tell you that the super Wal-Mart is opening up soon... Hahaha. Pinto (fo sho)- You know how we do! And hopefully by this summer I can go to the show too. Tristan- You.... You complete me! From dusk till dawn, you my friend are an animal. Santino- Hey, when'd you get out? And remember, rule with an iron fist. Beeforino- Thank God I didn't make the golf team, who do I look like Sir Edmund Hillary? Cree- You think it's gonna rain? Perretta- You were good kid, real good, but as long as I'm around you'll always be second best see. Oh I almost forgot... Go get your shine box! The year is finally over... It went by so fast. We had some good times and some hard times, but the memories will last forever. And I'm looking forward to taking it all in. WOW now I feel better.

BRANDON FORINO

4 long years at Stanstead, it all went by so fast, it almost seemed like yesterday I was saying goodbye to my parents to start a new journey. If not for my parents I wouldn't be where I am today, thank you so much for giving me this opportunity. Mom and dad I love you guys so much. To my friends you have made so many memories and good times, I can't list them all here. Rob and Pete, you've been there though it all good times and in bad. Rob, you're a real fighter and don't ever give that up, hey and remember the expos game that guy with the duck horn!! Pete, you have changed me so much, crayfish bay, our fights on the hockey bus, and Slovakia was so much fun! Shawn, I couldn't have gotten through this year without you but you need to keep practicing your L's!! Paul and Jon, you guys could make me laugh anytime, anywhere. Copestake you have been a great roommate, the look on your face when you broke that mirror was priceless. Mr. Mac, Mr. Rioux, and Mr. Van Dyke thanks for all your advice and guidance, but those fishing trips were the best. The annual golf invitational will be continued next year. A special thanks to everyone who made this year unforgettable. best of luck to all in the future! For now, bye Stanstead!!

JACOB FRITZ

Driving home the other day, I did something I haven't done in a long time: I turned off the radio. This gave me some time to think and the first thing that came to mind was sports. Through a few minutes of analyzing, I realized how positively unimportant they are, professional sports especially. I then looked at most of pop culture and noticed how menial most of it is. Movies, music, clothes, etc... Our lives would not be any better or worse without most of it. So the question to ask is now, what is left? The answer is obvious if not overused and clichéd: Happiness. In the end, the only thing to strive for is happiness and it's ultimate culmination, love. Then it dawned on me; this is where all of the things that don't matter fit in. Sports, movies, music and other trivial pastimes exist only to inspire happiness. Anger and fear exist only to provide a balance for without it, we would spiral off into a hedonistic madness. So, above all, strive to be happy, but remember, everything in moderation. As two wise men once said, "If it's not fun, why do it?" - Ben and Jerry.

SHAWN ISERHOFF

Well three years at Stanstead didn't seem as long as it would be. All the people at Stanstead made my stay that much more. Crayfish Bay; Tristan, be a man! You know what I'm talking about. Paul, I know I'm huge. Cole, quit waking me up at 7:30 in the morning, ON A WEEKEND! John, someday I'll see you on Saturday Night Live. Having trouble getting out of the hammock? All those fun times in the locker room. Forino, Perretta, Pete, good times. Michael and Mark, you two know how to cook. Mr. Mac., thanks for all those long speeches on hockey. Mr. Rioux, geez where do I start? You gone fishing? Seriously, I appreciate all that you've done for me. Mr. Van Dyke, I love that golf swing. Thanks for the fun. I also want to say thanks to the Comeau's. I enjoyed the laughs and friendship. Bo, keep golfing. Last, but not least, my family. I just want to say to my mom and dad, thank you and much love. You always pushed me to the limit and I appreciate that. My brother's Ashley and Matthew, both of you have inspired me in one-way or another. Thank you, I love you guys. That's it for now. I'm outty, peace. Shawn.

MARIE-PIER JACQUES

This was my second year in Stanstead, and it's already over. To describe my time in one word it would have to be: "fast" I remember my first day I was so discouraged every night I would cry. The first month was difficult, although it was worth it. I learnt more in two years at Stanstead than anywhere else. I would like to say a special thanks to my teachers who supported me 'til the end! Thanks to those who gave me a chance when I needed it. What can I say about the girls in Webster? Well I love you all and I had a great year with you, even if at times it wasn't easy. I want to say bye to my French class: Salut les filles! Je vous souhaite de réussir l'année prochaine. Vous avez été de bonnes compagnes de classes, j'ai vraiment eu du plaisir à vous compter mes jokes. Bye monsieur F. Salut Vanessa on se revoit cet été, change pas tu es super! Bye to all the Mexican girls, viva Mexico. I will miss you. Bye Maiko and Andrew, I love you so much and yes we will see each other in 2010. And for the rest of you that I care about you know who you are and let's keep in touch.

Scary Feet xxx

PAUL JOB

To bowl or not to bowl? That is the question. The answer is...dude?! The year has finally reached its highly anticipated destination - the end. This year has had its ups and its downs and yes I'm well aware that chicks dig the long ball, but all in all I would like to thank my family, who will remain anonymous for federal reasons, for always being there, paying the phone bill and putting up with my endless complaints. You guys are my motivation and I love you. Then there are the people who made the year a lot more fun than expected, too many to mention all, but you know who you are. Thanks for all the sssick times and I know I never say this but, well, you don't drag me down, I drag me down and you, you guys complete me (fighting tears). JF - Most improved, ADP - Oh you know how we do! You going to the show? RP - Stevie Wonder and Ray Charles? TB - Shut up, just shut up! You had me at hello! SLBF - That was huge! Sheilah - Thank you for making everything so much easier. I must go now and take my place as emperor of the world, so I leave you with these final words, so money, pull the string, let's go boiys, ask an old boy, hey straight!, do you have a license for those things?, keep your nose clean, this should only take thirty seconds, so what's your point and so anyways, I was...and it was good. If you need me I'll be in D219 for obvious reasons, but until we meet again, I'm out! .....that's what she said!

SONNY SUN DO KIM

It's been long but great 3 years here at Stanstead College. First I would like to thank my parents for their support. I can't believe I am graduating SC. I have lots of memories of the last three years. I've got a many good memories also bad memories too. However I will never forget the bad memories. I'd like to thank all of my friends. Especially my old roommate Robin and all of the Chinese and Korean people~. I will miss you guys so much~~~. Now we are graduating SC. However I believe we will keep in touch with each other so I will not say good-bye. Wish you guys luck in university!

VANESSA KURTZ

Leaving room 106 isn't the problem. Although my last steps on campus is where it all starts. Life is so short to worry about small petty problems that recur over and again, so why bother with a period of three months when on the long run none of it meant a thing. Life seems too short to worry, but take the time to appreciate those that you meet, because you never know... you might meet someone like me that could back stab you, so please take ones advice, and stay away from me. You lie in bed, or lie to others, but think of the good times that you said happened, and remember them forever. Between decaying teeth, babies being killed and fighting world depression, life in Stanstead isn't that bad... depending of course who you choose to be friends with? There are some that I will miss and one, which I'll laugh at. Although that's the beauty of it all, because in every life there is always one ugly duckling that seems to be lost in a world that is to big for them. Love to the ones I love xox.

SANDRINE LANOT

Wow, I can still remember my first day at Stanstead College, the only words I had in my vocabulary were yes, no, thank you, ketchup!!! As you can see Stanstead College has not only given me the opportunity to learn another language but it also made me meet some incredible people. During those three years I have been through so much, when you think about it, our lives sound like soap operas!!! Even though I am sad to leave Stanstead, I know that the relationships I have built here will follow me all my life. Annya, my French buddy, you were always there for me no matter what, Nicole, you mean so much to me and you will always have a special place in my heart, Leigh, don't let anyone change you, your simplicity is what makes you so special. Vicky, I don't know where to start, you are the first person I met here and even after everything that happened we are still friends. Matt, I simply want to thank you for being the person that you are, I will always remember our long, long talks in the car... My three years at Stanstead have made me discover so many things about myself. Stanstead College has given me the motivation and the determination to achieve my goals and to reach my full potential. I want to finish by wishing everybody good luck and by thanking my family. I love you all!!!

JUDY LEE

My last year in Stanstead was the best year, I did not even realize I was away from home nor did it feel lonely. My classmates were always funny and entertained the class where I could gain the energy to smile and to study. But I especially want to thank my bathroommate, VIVIEN, whom I always cooked with and chatted until midnight. And there is NATHALIE, who was almost like my tutor and supported me in many ways. RICK, who seemed like my little brother, I am sure you will meet the most beautiful girl. There are too many people I want to mention and give special thanks to, JASON-MICHAEL-TEDDY (you guys are so funny!), ROBIN(don't tease me!), JOHN,-TONY,-LUKE (My best Korean friends!), MARK (Stop hitting!), SANY, AH-REUM, KAI and Korean Juniors. I will never forget the memories with you guys. Also, to my advisor Mr. SIMARD, thanks for delicious dinner! And to my BF, SONNY, Thanks for making me smile and laugh all the time. And at last, I want to thank my parents who gave me a great opportunity to meet these precious friends, and SUNG-AH, My sworn sister, I miss you so much and thank you for always making me happy. Honestly, I don't know how I can handle myself without you guys next year and I will MISS you and LOVE you always & FOREVER. Thanks to all of you guys!!

JULIE LEMAY

My first day at Stanstead seems like yesterday. The years have gone by so fast. I probably wouldn't have made it through without my "little" sister Marie- Eve, she's always been there for me during good and bad days. No I did not come to Stanstead because I got kicked out of my other school. I came because I was forced to, my parents wanted me to learn English and to also learn how to smile, it's the best decision they've made and I'll always be grateful. I've achieved what they were expecting from me: over the years I learned English but learning how to smile wasn't an easy task, it took me two years to finally find someone that could put a smile to my face 24/7. Rob I Love You sooo much. I still can't believe I'm going out with you, Babe... Annie machiri d'amour meme si on a eu des petites (ben une grosse) chicane, tu restes la meilleure chiri d'amour au monde, disons que ca va nous couter cher d'interrubain la prochain, I'll never forget my triple F's we had a great time and next year is going to be so different without me cause I'm so good... blablabla (Joke) guess who I was imitating??? Sarah oublie pas BCW (Bit... captain wannabe). Anyway I'll miss you all and I know I forgot some people but I can't fit you all in, and no Sheilah I didn't forget you don't cry it's just basketball.

ROBERT LENZ

Two year later you leave this place, you look at yourself and ask whether it was worth it to go through this. In my case it was. Yeah I had bad times but it's always what you make out of it and for myself I did all I could do. What do I mean with I made the best out of it? First of all I made friends which I will never lose, I made memories I will never forget and I made someone out of myself which I will never forget and I will stay thankful for it. I want to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to go to Canada and make this experience, thanks mom & dad. But it's always good to know that you have a second home in Canada so THANX DUGGI AND JUANNE, you are the greatest and I can't wait to see you next year. There are some more people I have to thank Peter, Martin and Copestake, I love you Bros. Mo & Nacho I can wait to see what you can get out of Stanstead. Vanessa thanks for all the good time we had together. I'm coming to Montreal to destroy your, extremely tacky, apartment next year. Montse my little sis don't worry you will find the one. Alex, words say less then action. "You should understand the way it was back then, because it is the same even now." One love.....Peace Rob Lenz

JOHN LIM

4 years of Stanstead life went so fast. I thank my parents who gave me a great opportunity to come to Stanstead and My advisor Mr. Mac who always supported me when I face difficult situations. Thank you Sir!!^^. When I look back my past, I realize that many friends supported, helped, and made me laugh. First of all I thank my roommate Jonathan. He is a very nice guy and he always made me happy. So does my last roommate Mr. Copstake. He is my best roommate ever in Stanstead. He had done so many things for me when I just needed it. I will miss you Copper!!^^. Secondly, my Korean friends... Especially Luke, Tony, Sonny, and Judy. Without their help and support I might not have had great experience of enjoying my Stanstead life. Others Sol, Kai, Paul Yoon and Kim, Rick, Park, Brandon, Kewn Won, Joo Sung, Chris K, Tae Kyun, and so on. We did not have many conversations but I was happy when you guys were smiling at me and made me laugh^^. Thank you Guys!! Finally, Chinese people Jason, Micheal, Sany, Vivian, Mark, Louis, Robin, Teddy, and Junior kids^^ I am glad that I have friends like you guys!! I had great time with you guys. I will go to miss you guys but we will meet each other one day. I wish you guys to success your goal and have nice summer vacation^^

TONY LIM

I have been here for almost 4 years in Stanstead College. During my Stanstead life, I saw and learned so many things. And, now, I am preparing to leave Stanstead. My time in Stanstead is over. I want to say "Thank you" to all of my supporters. Especially, my parents, they gave me a great opportunity. My friends, Teddy... no rice for you... Mark, please try to sleep quietly... I can hear you snoring (I'm kidding...) Luke, you are a good supporter for helping me... John... finally we are going to different schools. I hope you enjoy your time in your university. Lastly, I'd like to give my thanks to my teachers. Mr. Rioux, you are the best house director I have ever seen (out of three...) Mrs. Retchless, thank you for my universities guidance, Mr. Planetta, your biology class is the best and, my advisor, Mrs. Smith, you are my most favorite teacher. All memories from Stanstead will stay somewhere in my heart and never will fade away. I will remember forever. Thank you, people and Goodbye.

NATALE LUSSIER

Looking back at my years at Stanstead, I believe I have grown a lot through all of the numerous experiences I have had here. This year specifically was more of a focus on University and my future. In this respect I have many thanks to give out, most notably to: my loving and supportive parents; Mr. Denny who believed in me; Mr. Wells who helped me with a lot of advanced Math; Ms. Getty who was my mentor and encouraged me in Web Site Club; Mr. Simard for being a great advisor; Mr. Houghton for giving me access to special parts of the network; Mr. Van Dyke for opening my eyes to engineering; my friends who were always there to lend a helping hand and all of the other great teachers and faculty who really made a difference in my life. I will never forget you. Special thanks go out to my roommates Melissa (Angelina Jolie is coming!) and Vivien (Twinkl stars? Fondue fun! Go girl!); Judy (my companion in a class filled with boys, plus the person who introduced me to Korean food! She'll be a great doctor!); all of those guys previously mentioned (you know who you are, science people); Gabby (amazing artist!); Julio (Harry-Potter!); the Day Students (the basement days were fun) and all of the Asians (Chinese & Korean & others). Good luck with your future ventures, be sure to keep in touch, try not to forget all of the memories we've made, enjoy the ride.

JULIO MENA BRITO

Grade Twelve at Stanstead College... what an experience. I look back at the two years I've spent in this school and realize how much I've changed, how many new things I've learned and how differently I view life. No matter how high you shoot for, never lose confidence in yourself, if someone tells you it can't be done, try harder. There are so many people I want to give thanks to that it would be impossible to do it in 250 words, so if I left you out don't feel bad, you know how bad I am with names. First of all I want to thank God for giving me life and blessing me with all that I have. Mom, Dad lo logramos, gracias por su apoyo y su amor. Smurf... c ya next year. Ms. Retchless, you will always be my Canadian mom... Cornell!!! To all the prefects in Davis, it was a great year. Mr. Rioux and Mr. P. you made Davis a second home. Viva los Mexicanos!!! My Jap and My French Canadian wife, we will meet again. The world is ours... lets make the best out of it!

MENG-HENG OU

Finally, it's about time to leave SC. 5 years seems long, but I don't agree with that. Life in SC is like a dream to me, a wonderful dream that I would never forget. I can still remember how I used to hate this school, the school system, foods. Those problems don't come to me anymore, those memories are tough, but they are also sweet. I want to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to study in SC, it's fantastic. Thanks to Shawn, Brandon (Is that "we"?), Judy, Luke, Mark, Sany, Vivien, Allen, Robin, and all of my friends who supported me while I was in trouble, thank you all. Thanks to all teachers who taught me in these 5 years, Mme. Martineau, Mr. and Mrs. MC, Miss. Wadleigh, Mr. Denny (thanks for all the university advice), Dyke (what can I say? Basketball, physics, bowling, I have lots of stuff to say, but something I know for sure. You can still get 200 even if you play straight ball, it's not much worse than curve ball), my advisor Mr. Simard (thanks for all the advice), and my house director Mr. Wells (thanks for your care in the house). I wish you all the best. Farewell Stanstead!!

JASON OU

It is difficult to put four years of my Stanstead life into words. Four years seems to be a long time, but I felt like I arrived yesterday. It's still hard to believe this is my last year. I am grade 12? hummm... I thought I am only grade 9. Anyway, I made a lot of friends and had many memories. Luke, for almost 3 years roommate I have to thank you, without your support and help I probably won't pass anything. We have laughed and shared our vexation together. We are the best roommates! Finally I'd like to thank all my friends and teachers. Thanks for helping me. I am sure you know who you are. I will never forget the years at Stanstead.

PETER ROSS

Well things could have ended a little better at Stanstead, but I guess it could have also been worse. That's one thing Stanstead has taught me, for every thing negative that happens there is a positive. Lenz you have the best humour of anybody I know and I hope you never lose that. Coper Dalhousie has a surprise coming their way. Beef if you're not in the NHL within 5 years I'll be very disappointed, man you got the most potential and drive out of all of us, donuts don't forget!! Rob roommates at last and not a dull moment, but Rob let's go to bed early tonight, ok? Jeff, Cowan my little Bugbee prefects we'll always have something in common..... and trust me I'll be back to "enjoy" your company. Chris I know you probably not going to like this but..... "you can take Chris out of the country but you can't take the country out of Chris". Dave I'll see you in N.H. Lauren as you read this I'm probably somewhere in Toronto, who knows, but there's definitely one thing I'm sure about its that if you lose something and it comes back to you it has to be special, its been rough but hopefully the worst is behind us and the best is yet to come. Mom, Dad, J.D you are honestly the best family in the world, no joke I have honestly been blessed to be able to feel your love and will forever return it.

MARTIN SIEMSEN

The average person at Stanstead at least once in their lifetime regrets the fact that they have gone to this school but everyone finds at least one genuine liking concerning their stay here. Stanstead provides an environment, which encourages growth in terms of maturity, character and wisdom and as I have profited from this immensely, I must take this opportunity to thank all of those that have made sacrifices for this to become possible. John, Marinka, Kimi, Christian, Stephan and Goswin, thank you for all of your patience and support. I have been blessed with the most amazing, loving, caring and understanding Family in the world. I love you. My stay at Stanstead has left me with an incredible amount of friends and memories, the importance of this being that these memories have shaped and changed me into a stronger more fulfilled human being. Lenz, Momo, Nacho, Vaness, Laura, Alex, Copestake, Teddy, Robbie and Julio you guys have been there for me through the challenging, demanding and difficult times. You're the best and I hope that all of us can stay in touch. And now to my baby, Melissa you are my best friend and my first love, you are my strength, my weakness, my fire and my water, you give me everything I need to survive and I wouldn't have made it without you. Words will never be enough. I will love and be there for you forever. Aufwiederschen.

MARK SUN

Time goes really fast. This is my third year in Stanstead, also my last year. I made a lot of memories here. I want to thank my advisor Mr. Simard. He took care of me in these years. I also want to thank Mr. Van Dyke. He is a wonderful teacher, and I want to tell him, "Sir. I will beat you on basketball one day. Wait for me." I also want to thank Mr. Wells. He helped me a lot on my calculus and linear this year. I want to say something to my friends here. You are all the best. The best part of my memory. No matter where am I going next year, I won't forget you all. You guys help me to create a wonderful memory here. I won't forget the lawn here. I won't forget the basketball court here. I won't forget people's smile here. I also won't forget the love story I had in this place, and any other story of mine. I will try to do my best to save all the images in my mind in these three years. Stanstead let me know I have a great high school life. Farewell my friends, farewell my memories, farewell Stanstead. I will come back here in the future. Good-Bye my high school life. My high school will end in 2003 summer. I am going to create another memory. All of you will be in my mind forever.

MAIKO TOYAMA

I don't know... I'm happy and sad at the same time to leave Stanstead. I thought I would get used to boarding life, but actually, I have never become used to this environment. It is totally opposite to what I am used to in Japan. It was hard but at the same time SC become more fun. I found a lot of support behind me. That was the only thing that helped me survive 4 years in Stanstead. I'm going to miss Stanstead in some ways. I believe this a 'love/hate' relationship. I think I've changed a lot in 4 years. There are some things that haven't changed but I have created a new Maiko, and I'm happy with the result of combining the two worlds I've known. I know it depends on the environment and because of all the support from friends, teachers and parents, how much I have grown into an independent person. I was going to focus on academics for my future, but I found I learned communication skills to be more valuable. I'd like to say thank you to my support group individually, but there are too many for this small space. I will never forget you, what you've done for me and meant to me these past 4 years, you will remain in my heart. I made it! Lastly, my parents who are my guides, my inspiration and without whom this would not have been possible - I thank you and I love you!

ALICIA WAPEN

Life has a strange way of guiding you in the right direction. I came to Stanstead this year with minimal expectations, and through the course of the year have received more than can be accounted for. I found myself this year, and for that I have many people to thank. I want to start with the one person who has influenced me more than any other, she has shown me what true passion is, and that anything is achievable if one strives for it. I believe this woman defines the word teacher, for she has motivated me in more ways than one, to step out of my comfort zone, and see the world from a different perspective, for that I admire her, thank you Miss Portelli. A friendship that started on the field has now turned into something that I will always cherish. Nicole you're my angel, I don't know how I would have made it through this year without you. Julio, my mexican my rock, thank you for continuously being there to support me. To the one that holds my heart, my boy, know that I am always with you no matter how physically far apart we are. I love you so much. Tippy, you are apart of me, without you I'm lost, I love you girl! Thank you Mom and Dad for having faith in me, and believing that I could change for the better. "In those whom I like, I can find no common denominator; in those who I love I can: they all make me laugh." Thanks to all those who have put a smile on my face, I am eternally grateful.

LOUIS WONG

Four years at Stanstead College, years passed by very fast and I don't believe that I'm leaving. At Stanstead, the people who living and working at campus taught me a lot of lessons about what to do in my life, believe or not. They always make me laugh and to look forward. I would like to say thank you for my parents once again to give me a chance to study at Stanstead College. Also I would like to thanks to all the teachers, especially Miss Wadleigh who was my ESL teacher, who teach me a lot of lesson about how to face to my life. Thank you very much; I would never forget your advices. Mr. G music is the best thing on the Earth. Miss Campbell, PUNCHING IS BAD AND DON'T HURT ME!! To my friends: Avi, Nicole, leigh, Anya, Jonathan, Brandon, Teddy and there are too many of them. To Brandon, thank you very much for making fun of me all the time, that made me happy and angry. "Ping Pong" is a special name that I would always remember. Nicole, I'm going to miss you a lot, no matter when and I will miss your singing. Avi, we can be a good partners in the future, don't forget we all weirdo and keep up the music. Well that's about it. I wish the best luck for all of you, enjoy your life and look forward for the future. Keep contact each other because I m going to "Miss you all". Goodbye.

MELISSA WOOD

Annie, oki done. For three years I have lived, and breathed Stanstead. Looking back it's daunting to actually think that I made it through. And yet it's just as frightening to look ahead to the years without it. As always some things one will not miss and I am no exception to this rule, yet some things one will always cherish. Alex, ahh suewkey suewkey, Annie can I pluck your eyebrows. Laurla you'll always be my lulette. To my parents for their kindness and patients, my sisters I love you more than words I'm home now and we can watch the Emperor's New Groove everyday. John can we get some Marshmallows with that. Rob Lenz, you're a great faster. And as always the best for last, Martin you're my heart my soul, my strength and every one of my weaknesses, to the rest of our lives. I would and will never make it without you. Thanks.

LUKE YOON

3 years rushed by yet many great things happened to me in Stanstead. As I leave this place, all I wanna do is to leave thanks to my friends and teachers. Firstly, to my parents who gave me a chance to be here. Secondly, to my advisor Mr. Telling and other teachers for their guidance. My friends... My biggest thanks goes to Jason Ou. I can't write what you have done for me for I would need more than 250 words. THANKSSO~ MUCH, Jason! Also to my Chinese friends Allen (who shared many 'ships' with me such as friendship and partnership), Michael Ou, Mark Sun, Robin, and Teddy, Jeffrey... Sometimes weird, but my good friends, thank you. Then, there are my Korean friends. I'd really like to thank the twins, John and Tony, for always being on my side when I needed somebody the most. Although I joke around and call their names outside, I always appreciated them inside. Sonny Kim and Judy! You guys made my life in Stanstead better! Thank you. To Ahreum, Kai, and Sol. Well, we didn't talk too much but I always appreciated your beings. Looking at you always cheered me up when I was down. Thanks guys. Also, to other Koreans... thanks (P.Yoon, H.Lee, R.Won, J.Kim, P.Kim, K.W. Lee, T.K. Kim, J.Cho, C.Kang). Sometimes life in Stanstead was very frustrating but I really liked my friends here. It's hard to accept the upcoming separation but I know we will meet again... I know!

VIVIEN YU

Don't want to say bye. It's been a gorgeous year for me at SC. (Quote from Ms. Gittens - the nicest English teacher ever) My 3rd year and last best year at H.School was Grade 12 Never forget or tired to give a shot (taught by Mr. Scheib, my great advisor and AP Eco teacher, thanks for teaching more than that) Honestly, SC life made me stronger, my friends, all the memories with you, are fresh and sweet. . . Judy, even though it's going to be hard for us to keep chatting overnights (best bathroommate), but promise to keep sharing all these happy and sad again. Nat, twinkle star, I will keep an eye on your website, Cindy, I will miss you so much as well as our 24hr cooking Saturdays and movie Friday nights. Jason, please talk and play less, study more. Mou, not everything changed. Mark, I'll beat you again. Angel sister, take care of yourself if next time you are sick and I'm not beside you, someone else will take it over instead. Sany, I do see you grow up a lot. Junior Chinese, rock your senior SC life! Kao sisters, See you at universities next year. Sonny, Luke, Teddy, Alicia, Vivian, Marie, Brandon, Robert and Lims, nice to laugh with you guys either in class or swimming team!!! Remember my smile, there is always a place in my mind for you all....

ROBIN ZHAO

Hum... time flies like an arrow. Ladies and gentlemen, this is the end. 4 years has passed, from a boy I become a man. When I look around the school, everything still looks the same just like the first time I saw them, the memories are still fresh. I have too much to talk about but I don't know where to start and how will I talk about them. First of all, I thank my parents for everything they have done for me. There is no way I could get through without their support. And I have to thank all the people and things I liked and hated, I learned a lot from them and they made me become a man. I think I will miss this place, miss all the friends and all the things I have done in my high school life. I did not regret coming to this school because this place helped me to find my goal and I have finally reached it. Now I have a much bigger goal to reach and I will face the challenges with a smile on my face. I believe I will be successful. Just watch me go! One day I will come back with successes fames and you will remember me. Love you all and wish you all for a great fortune!!!

DAVID ZINAY

Well first of all I would like to thank the wax ninjas for not hurting me cause I forgot to leave them some pizza on the counter last night, second, I love Mexicans. Although my time here was memorable I can't help but feel I could have done more... ah well, too late now. I would like to thank the following people: My parents, Jeff "scare face" Gray, Matt "gear head" Emrich, Julio "Mexican" Mena, James "always calling me Z Man" Rioux, you guys helped me retain some level of sanity. Since there are too many people to thank and if I thanked them all this write up would a) be 3 pages long b) have no room for anything else c) be printed so small you can't read it d) long lists are boring e) all of the above f) none of the above g) do you really care anyway. Metallica and Children of Bodom Rule!

MOHAMMED ABDULQUDIR

Oh I am so happy that I am really going to say something that people will read. I know that I always have something to say. I really like it here because I learned a lot from people around me especially from our house director Mr. Rioux and I would like to thank him for every thing. I learned how to make my bed, how to do my homework, how to sweep my room and how to clean my clothes. I also want to thank my parents for bringing me here and saving my life. Nacho, really it has been a pleasure knowing you BROTHER. Sonny you are a bother from another mother. Lenz who will tuck me in bed next year? Martin sorry for all the questions I asked you. Chris G. it is really nice shearing room with you. Alex... Laura you smell like something. Wagner you changed. Vanessa... Maiko you are but so cute. And there are a lot more good friends I am really happy to know like Rob P., Chris C., the 2 Andreas, Natalie, Pete Ross, Francis, Mel Wood, Pinto, Coper and I am sorry if I forget anybody. I have a lot more to say but I will save it for next year. PEACE

ASHMEET AGARWALL

Unfortunately I was not a student of Stanstead College for the whole year but the three months I spend were awesome. The very first day I reached school it started to rain and then the fun began. All the members of the school were very helpful and friendly. The number of friends I made in such a short period was unbelievable. I am going to miss you all and I must thank you all for what has been such a learning experience.

VICKY ARMSTRONG

Wow! Already three years have gone by. Coming to Stanstead College and not knowing anybody was a challenge, but to study in English was fearful! BUT I HAVE SURVIVED! So many things happen during this period of time that I don't even know where to start... Well first of all I would like to sincerely thanks my mother who has sacrificed years of her life to support and guide me through these years, I love you so much and I will never thank you enough for everything you've done for me. Mr. G the best advisor in the whole world, you've shown me what life is really about. You were like a brother to me. Thank you! Dyke! Wow! So many arguments but we could still agree on stuff. Gourou! Rolling my eyes at you (promise I won't do it again!), our long talks. Basketball was amazing; I'll miss my teams next year thanks for everything! I'm appreciative to both of you. Sports have made me who I am! One year and two months, with you Sonny, I'll always be there for you, never forget! Thanks for making me mentally stronger. To my ONLY AND TRULY best friend Sandrine, we had our down heals but we never give up on our friendship. The first friend I met coming to Stanstead and the last I have leaving. I'll miss you! HE! TOE! (diète=pomme, PU CAPABLE!) J'taime crotte de nez! Amazing years that I will never forget! A lesson to learn leaving is that the only person you can trust is yourself!

PHILIPPE-OLIVIER BOUCHER

This year at Stanstead College passed by so fast, I can't realize it's finally over. I want to thanks my parents who gave me the chance to come here. It gave me the chance to learn things about myself and also meet and live with people from different cultures, things that I might not do often in my life. There are a lot of moments I remember from this year; football season, Chinese's food, Montreal breaks, Corean's conversations. Fo sho there are moments like when you have 4 house hours to run on Sunday morning when its -20 and full of snow outside. and Stanstead weekends. Anyways, let's talk about my boyz; Frank. Pinto, fo sho baby! Joey, thanks helping me being less French here buddy. My roommate, Dave, be careful! Lenz you are the best prefect. Sonny, thanks, keep it real bro. I also want to say a warm what's up to all the ladies. Assez parler anglais de meme pendant toute l'annee que je peux ben ecrire de koi en francais. Ceux qui niaise les francais ben je ris d'eux parce qu'on a les plus belles dames au Quebec pis y peuvent pas les cruizer. I just want to add that is has been an experience that I'd be up to start again but not for more than 2 years in row. Anyways, see you next year.

Take care, Phil.

RONALD CHANG

First I'd like to thank my family for everything they have done for me. Without them, I would not be able to come to SC and meet you guys. Thanks to the entire faculty for all the support, especially my advisor Mr. Van Dyke and my house director Mr. Wells. I spent half of my year in Davis, the other half in Bugbee, I had lots of fun in both houses. I would also like to thank all my friends at SC for giving me a wonderful year. Robin, Mark, Allen, Jason and Michael, hope I still have a chance to play b-ball with you. Special thanks to Jeff Wan (stop shaking), Cowan (two words for you, POWERFUL and USEFUL), Gray (thanks for helping me) and the rest of Chinese. Lastly, I would like to give my biggest thank to My NOVIA Ninfa for giving me support for the whole year. I love you, ISA! Without you, I am nothing. Finally, it is over! Enjoy your summer and I'll see you guys in September.

ANDREA CHANNELL

Well, it's been three amazing years here at Stanstead College. I've made friendships that I know will last a lifetime. Nat, Andrew (Andrea), and Lauren you guys are the most incredible people I know and I'm lucky to have you as friends. Nacho thank you for everything, te queiro, Mexico here I come... again (bueno!!) Maiko my roomy all I can say is I love you! Rob thanks for always listening. Julie you're a sweet heart and my shoulder to lean on. Candice! Katie there's always a first, just next time without me! Sarah my jokes are funny! Jeff thanks for showing me what Montreal was all about! Sheilah - always good times with you! Mo, there's never a dull moment with you. Sonny I always had fun with you no matter what! Jason you'll always be 'my guy'! Chad and Dave Osei you guys are great To all the Mexicans Victoria, Karla, Rodrigo (I'm your prom date right?!), Pablo (grade 10 eh??), and Ale and the rest of you I hope to see you all in the future... and I swear I'm part Mexican! My friend and big brother Chris I love you, don't have too much fun this summer without me! I want to thank you Mom for giving me this opportunity and Dad and the rest of my family for always supporting me.

CHRIS CHANNELL

The friends and memories I have made here at Stanstead are irreplaceable and I will remember them forever. I'd like to first start off by thanking those who have helped me the most in my life here at Stanstead. Mom and Dad, thank you for all the support and love you both bring me, without you I wouldn't be as fortunate as I am, thank you so much for everything you do for me. Mr. Rioux, Mr. Ashworth, you both are great advisors who I have learned lots from, and to all my coaches thanks for such great seasons I have with you. To my best friends, Jason..thanks for always being there for me, many memories, Rob..It's good to have you back buddy, thanks for everything. Nacho..Thank you for everything you have helped me with, we have lots of memories to look back on this year. You're a friend I'll never forget, and Pete..you amuse me. Bonita, no one has ever made me feel the way I do like you, you're an incredible girlfriend and person who I love very much, good luck next year, Te Quiero Muchisssimo Andrea!! Jeff, Sonny, Moh, Marosi, Pinto, Brandon, Marty, Silent Bob, Copstake, and Pablo..Let's party baby! Lauren..you and Pete (solid couple), Natalia (thanks hermana TQM) and Annie!!! Andrea, thanks for everything you do. I LOVE YOU! Thanks for a great year, Peace. P.S. Here I come Mexico!

JASPER CHO

I've got too many things to say, and I really want to write this well, since this is going to be part of the yearbook 2002-2003. I really had fun and tried to get involved in terms of athletic and residential life unlike last year in my old school. For three different sports I felt the support of peers and lots of satisfaction at the end of each season. I appreciate Mr.G, Mr.Simard, and Mr.Scheib! Particularly in Rugby season. It was my second year playing rugby and the first time I enjoyed it that much. Those were the most exciting plays I've ever done. :) I really want to thank all my Koreans, Germans, Americans, Mexicans, Arabics and Canadians, who made me feel Stanstead as a second home. What an unforgettable year of my life! Love ya all and hope to see you again on the first floor of the Davis House next year! HAHAA

KAI CHO

Did you know Kai Cho (Jung Eun Cho) in 2002-2003?? This is my third year in stanstead and I can't believe that time goes too fast!! HOW ARE YOU?? I hope that you are happier~ When you read this, some of you won't stay beside me. However, Remember!! I am your FRIEND! When you have hard time, please send me mail —→ nankie85@hotmail.com ←— Every year, my days got better because I had really good friends. Jocelyn, my roommate and big sister, Thank you. You woke me every morning and when I had problem you helped me like mom. I love Taiwan's cookies :). Sany, This year was too short to talk our stories. I wish I had another year. I will miss you!!! Jae-Jae. My big part of recollection would be Korean people (Haley, Judy, Ahreum and the 16 boys). I cannot forget the Korean presentation in Assembly. It was fantastic!! What's the word for "Kai and ____"?? Sol, I met you since grad 10 and we were always together. Sometimes there were hard time also, but if you did not come to Stanstead... I cannot imagine being alone in a strange country. Thanks a lot and I love you. Also, I thank to March Trip members (Ximena, Jason Ou, Mr. Simard and Mr. Denny) in UK. I will miss you guys and I love you.

JASON COWAN

This grade 11 year was eventful, well-traveled and memorable. I look back and remember trips to Vancouver, Halifax, many states and even Europe. ## LAUREN CUENANT

So after all this time, I'm actually going into my last year at Stanstead. I've met a lot of people here that I'd like to someday sit next to on my wheelchair, out of my mind. Sarah, my steel magnolia, you've been the best friend I could ever have...when others would leave the room because of my flatulence...you stayed. You're good people. Jean-Mi, despite a year of you busting out new pole dances, I just know...everything is going to be o.k. Rhett, I probably would've majored in humanities if it weren't for you. I'm just glad I could make it up to you with all my valuable advice. Jeff, lest we forget math class, "will you work it for me?", my endless questions, your love of raised eyebrows. Jason, thanks for the bus ride. Nat, 11/12, the spider, Pablo/Victoria prank, "uh, she's not here!" Andrea, watch out next year! Andrea (Channell), my favorite red head, thanks for always being there, especially when others weren't. Chris—enough said. And finally, to my schnooky poo poo, good luck next year trying to find someone as funny and cute as me. I'll miss you. Pupu, Mum, thank you for always sacrificing for my benefit...and comforting me before I left for school. Winston, Marc, Hayes, thank you for filling my breaks with the joys of television, cereal, and the occasional fat girl jokes.

Until next year...Tootles!

MATT DAVIS

Wow! Is the year really already over? It seems as though just yesterday I arrived for the first time to get a tour of the school. I have really enjoyed my time here at Stanstead. I now know that I have much potential and the ability to learn and do well. As much as I would like to take all the credit for my improvements, I cannot. I would first like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to achieve these goals, and encouraging me not to let up upon the way. Next, Mrs Louise Retchless, for helping me with my many questions and problems I brought forward to her. Miss Wadleigh, although we sometimes did not agree, I know my well being was of your best interest. I thank you for that. Ah the boys, JM-RJ-AJ-JE-UP, thanks for the great times. Cons, you didn't actually think I would leave you out, did you? Thank you so much for always being there every step of the way, I love you. Finally, I would like to thank all my teachers and fellow classmates, for making this year an enjoyable experience, which I would not trade for the world.

AVI DIAMOND

This year has been...hmmm...one 'heck' of a year. I never thought I would, but I will thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to come to this school. As with most years, this one, when looking back has gone by pretty quickly. Thank you to Miss Campbell for continuing my luck of having good English teachers. Mrs Retchless for being a good advisor, and Ms Getty-letting me 'work' in the library. Leigh and Annya-you guys are so funny-'mno'. Nicole-Andy is a lucky guy; keep singing. Sandrine-stuff happens but leads to good stuff. Mel-'evil', 'look out the window', get out of the stinky room. Jamie-the play, good times. Gabby-stay the way you are, and also good luck in Arts. Jonathan-awesome song. Ashmeet-always aware...keep laughing, have fun back home. Louis, I still don't remember when exactly I first talked to you. Thanks for being a great friend. Good times: music, crazy guy yelling..and never see Iced Tea anymore (hopefully). Take it easy, and I know you will succeed in Arts-I will see u in the news. Thanks to everyone; I'm comin' home!

JAMES ELLIOT

It's been a long five years but I got this far, a lot of good times that I'll never forget and lessons learned that will stay with me for life. I wouldn't have made it this far with out some people. Eugene, classes are long but they would be a lot longer with out you. Peter where would I be with out you, man? Dave "what, is it a party in here?" Jean-Mi "how in the world did I pop the tire, man". Aaron. Alicia I don't know if I will ever meet a nicer human being. Bujold keep rocking in the free world "Dave, somebody was cranking your amp!" Bonaro just drink your milk and go to bed early. Cole. Rhett we've been going to classes together for twelve years and we still manage to keep it entertaining. Mr. G you're the best advisor I'll ever have, man. My dog Belle has been there to greet me when I go home for as long as I can remember. My parents who I love very much have supported me over the years with a lot of things thanks guys. Last but certainly not least my sister who I love very much and is always there to make me laugh and comfort me. And to all my fans I love you!

ANDREA FERNANDEZ MARTINEZ

These two years have been amazing. Even though it was hard to be away from home, being here has been the best experience of my life so far. First of all, I want to thank my parents, los quiero mucho. Thanks to you I've lived incredible moments and made great friends that I will never forget. Almu (Pi) Leslie (Toronto)! Ana, Ana, Clau, Sandy y Michel. Nat., Julio, gracias. Mai, every night before break! Andrea, my sister! Pablo, Nacho. Ruiz, Victoria, Karla, Ale, Sha. MP, I wannabe a mexican wannabe too! Lauren, I'll miss your comments, like you'll miss me saying thing! Mo, my favorite Arabian. Sarah, now you know the best 3 things in life! Chris, I will never thank you enough for changing my life for the better TE AMO. I'm gonna miss you like crazy and thanks for explaining me (lol) how to do my laundry the right way. Mr. Williams and Mrs. Telling thanks for your support. Thank you all for being awesome. I love you and I'll be thinking of you guys next year. Take care and don't miss me too much ok.

AMY GILLESPIE

Gotta fit ya'll in so here I go.. Woody: I miss u so much, I'll never forget Dude Where's my car! Hunt: Swing me baby! Know what I'm gonna call you? Raill: My blues clues kissa! I'm gonna miss ju! Ash: They aren't for your face Chili woman! Gloomy is a NEWMAN! She: Softball baby! We really aren't lazy, I swear! Rob: You are an inspiration, silly goose. Sis: Watch out for the treadmill! Bucky: Wanna cupcake? Mom & Dad: Thanks for everything! Last but certainly not least, Ross: You mean the world to me, I love you baby! I wouldn't have lasted this long without you! No distance is too far and we've proved it! Overall I've had a great 4 years so far, and I look forward to next year! I would like to thank everyone who made this year so special, and laughed at my jokes (even when they weren't funny). I'm gonna miss all of the late nights with my fellow Colby girl prefects, from classics such as "In the Jungle", or even watching Dirty Dancing a ja-zillion times, it was all mostly "G" rated fun that I'll never ever forget, even if I tried. In closing I would like to use a quote that I think reflects my year here, "Do not dwell in the past, do not dream of the future, concentrate the mind on the present moment." With a holla and a shout, this honey is out!!

AARON GINGRAS

This year was different from many of the years I've been at Stanstead. I think that maybe I was just more relaxed and maybe that the oncoming of College is helping me understand what I have to do in life. Lots of people have made life better and easier and lots of people have made it harder. Most of all I think that all my friends are really what help me get through everyday laughing and smiling. School is for education and we learn not only academic stuff, but we learn about ourselves. I'm not quite to the point where I know where my life is going exactly, but at Stanstead I've been able to formulate some idea about it. Jamie (PhD.), Eugene, Rhett, Shaz, Matt E., Dave, and all the other cool people that I shared a good time with this year, I'd like to say thanks and keep it real. As far as teachers go, I would like to thank Mr. Ashworth for being so helping and offering so much advice. I would also like to thank Mr. Grenier for helping me get that teen angst on paper. Five long years are gone and long they were. I still have one year to go and many good times to have, but don't ever say that nothing fun happens at Stanstead.

JEFF GRAY

Coming to Stanstead last year was a leap of faith for me, but one that I have never regretted. Firstly, I have to thank my parents for all the hard work they do in order for me to be here. I promise you'll never regret it. Dar, you left a legacy behind at this school and some big shoes to fill. You're one of the biggest reasons why I strive for perfection. Cowan: It's too hot for penguins! Good times. Zinay: my line mate for four years, the sniper. Keep doing what you do. Pete: Good luck next year buddy, well. Forino: why, you, no, dance? Rob: Hot soup! Next year-provincials baby! Ronald and Wan, ni how ma? Lauren: It's really not that ghetto. Cole: Hey funboy! Channell: when is that steak coming? Houck: the tradition lives on. Lenz: good apple. Ashley: just remember to smile. Dunn: thanks for all the t.v, food, and for being one cool Irishman. Rioux: Slovakia was amazing. I'll never forget all the things you've done for me. Scheib: oh boy. Belanger: Eh? Wells: thanks for everything. You were always there to talk to. Van Dyke: You showed me the true meaning of learning. Mac: Can't wait 'til next season. Grenier: if it weren't for you, I may have lost my love for music, thanks for everything. It's been a great year. I'm looking forward to grade 12. But first, it's time for summer. Later.

CHRISTOPHER GROOTE

Time doesn't change us, it just develops us.

-Max Frisch

The fastest year of my life is coming to an end, and it is like slowly waking up from a dream. Stanstead gave me a whole new perspective on life and school. But now, it is time to go back to my old life and use the new knowledge. I want to thank my parents for giving me this opportunity and supporting me throughout the year (I know I gave you guys a hard time, sometimes). I want to thank all my teachers, coaches and all the staff for all the effort they put in. And, last but not least, thanks to all the new friends I made and to my old friends back home, you helped me do this. I hope I will see you all again, one day. I'll never forget Stanstead, and all of you that made it one of the best experiences of my life.

P.S.: Momo, you are the best!!!

NINFA GROSSKELWING

Family, thank you for always supporting me to reach my dreams. Amazing world; STANSTEAD, time flew by. Lots of fun, music, sports, learning, friendship, love, thoughts, feelings, brotherhood! I learned: new cultures and the maturity we won. Experiences that I will never forget. It's hard to make the next step but we have to move on; I will miss you so much. Thanks all of you, for making me smile, caring about me, living with me this wonderful time. You're the best thing in my entire life Hao Hsiang, "pollito" Je t'aime avec tout mon coeur, I admire everything you do, especially your tenderness, the way in which you give a hand to everybody, your noble heart. Eternal affection to my family Chang, who opened for me the doors of their home and loved me as another member. Julia "princesse" my patient roomie, I will miss talking to you about everything, but more your unconditional love and care, don't forget the best nights in which we laughed together. Jen, your constant "good morning" jokes, being yourself. Xime, mi comadrita de siempre. To all my teachers that taught me "gold" for success in life, knowledge. To all of you who changed my life in a precious way - to say good-bye is just the beginning of a new return, reach your goals, fight for what you want, want what you desire, desire what you dream and always dream. True friends are always present in the heart your whole life.

ALEX GULLIVER

What a year... WOW... First off, I would like to thank my parents for sending me here, I've really improved since public school. I also want to thank my sisters boo and moo, love you! And Hoefler and Kimmeh for being true friends. As well as all the people who helped me out along the year...Nacho my lil' Mexican. Laura Aikin - Cancun - good times babe, sing broadway, lets order pizza, Big Macs mmm. Aaaaannie my favourite roomie in the whole world, thanks for being there, I'll always remember. Bless u. Mo..."I hate this hill," Mel, Suki Suki! Lina first dance. Montse thanks for the good talks. Wags you're one of a kind, NYC baby. Coffees at Steve's. I'd like to thank Mr. Van Dyke for being my best bball coach, see you next year! I'll be missing you Rob, I'm still scared of you. Coper, you make me laugh. Have a good one. Yabba-dabba-doo!

SHAIDA GUZMAN ROMERO

Ok, first I want to thank all my teachers because I learned a lot of things from them and they helped me to be a better person day by day. Let me tell you that this year was the best I've had in my entire life, but the fact of never being in a boarding school before made this year for me a bit difficult and challenging at the beginning of the year, but as the time passed I got used to it and I made a lot of good friends who will never forget because thanks to them I survived this year away from home. I can't tell how much fun I had with all of them, every day I spent with them something new happened, maybe it wasn't always good things but we lived a lot of experiences together that I am sure I will remember forever. Moni, Ale y Vic, verde su pelo y Santa Claus en verano!; Moncheese, eres mi prop consentida; Karlis, gracias por ser mi segunda mama, te adoro; Dany, Cata, Ana y Xime las adoro chamacas, como ustedes no hay otras. I also want to thank Caroline and Edwina, you are amazing guys, I had so much fun with you every night. I want to tell Miss Portelli that she is the best advisor ever, thanks a lot because without your advice I don't know what I would have done. Well I just want to tell everybody that I had a wonderful year and I'm really going to miss Stanstead a lot.

AUDE HEBERT DEJARDINS

This was my first year at Stanstead College and I really liked it! It was a really cool year. OK I don't really know what to say for this and I didn't want to have a quote. So I'll just say that I love you all guys! Je vous aime tous! Te quiero mucho! Ich liebe euch alle!

SARAH HUNT

These past two years have provided me with some of the greatest experiences and memories I will take with me forever. For all of this I owe my greatest thanks to my grandfather, and parents for their support and guidance throughout my time here at SC. I would also like to thank both my brothers for always being there for me, Mattie and Hissy I miss you! Now despite the ever so cold showers and smelliness of Colby I have had the best time with you girls and will miss you next year, good luck! To the Colby prefects... Annie and Katie- you were the best roomies for all 2 weeks, Sheilah- please stop laughing, Raill- u smell, Newman- Face wipes? Amy I owe you so much for this year you kept me sane even though you are not. Lauren, my ever so disgusting friend, you really do gross me out, but its been fun... just remember these words "penny for the poor" Andrea C- your jokes will never be funny, Mel-kaa-kaa, Michelle-my name is SARAH! Jason- stay out of the closet ;), Jeff I was NOT following! And to the triple F's- we rock! I am looking forward to next year and all the memories to come in my final year here at Stanstead, but not until of course my exhilarating summer in Winnipeg. So for those who are leaving take care and to everyone else, see you soon!

RHETT JACOBI

Man, it's been a long five years. Even though I was only here for the minimum amount of time every day, it still seemed very long. I'd like to thank my parents, Sophie, and Erik for making this time spent here more valuable. Even though the time passed slowly, I did meet some cool people here, and I want to say thanks to all of them. Hey AL? J-M, you want to go for a ride? Lauren, have any more secrets for physics class? Jamie, wow, those funny times in French class. If I can be left with saying one thing, it is, if you're not living life on the edge, you're taking up too much room. That's all, folks, have a nice trip through life. I'm out. Be a bum, money is way over rated.

JESSICA KAO

Year after year, haha~ At last, I'm going to grade 12. The sad thing to me is half of my friends are going to graduate or leave the school this year. Next year, there are a lot of new students coming to Stanstead. My friends, I really want to treasure our time left (and graduate with you guys). I've known you guys almost three years, and maybe I won't see some of you anymore after graduating. I hope you guys take care of yourself, and I'll miss you. Maybe if I'm lucky, I could go to the same school as you guys, so remember me, don't forget me. Sany, you were the first Hong Kong person I knew. You are my best friend in the school, you were shy and to yourself when I knew you, but now you've grown up a lot, hope next time I see you, you will be very mature. Vivian, you are my sister, you have to remember to give me your address, I'll go to visit you, and wait for you to take me to visit your place. Of course, remember to give me the place to stay overnight..hehe...and Chinese boys, you guys are so nice, I won't forget you, however, remember to keep in touch. Finally, I want to thank every teacher, who taught me and advised me all year. You taught me a lot, and gave me space to do something I want. It's very important to me too Thanks again.

JOCELYN KAO

I had lots of fun during this year. There are so many friends are going to graduate for university. Feeling so bad right now, especially I'll be oldest one in school at next year. Mark, Sany and Vivian, you guys are my best friends. And Allen, I really don't understand that why we seldom talked this year??!! Michael, Jason, Louis and Robin hope you have a great freshman year. Don't miss me so much...I'll go to university soon. During Break, don't forget to come back to visit us. We'll miss you guys a lot.

SOL LEE

Over the past two years, I experienced a lot of things. Some were good and others were bad but still memories are memories and I would like to thank my parents for giving me a chance to have those memories. Without their support, I wouldn't be here, writing this. I would also like to thank my whole Korean crew (there are too many, I can't name them all!) For being cool friends and nice brothers. Without you guys, life in Stanstead wouldn't be fun at all. It was so much fun!! Let's keep this relationship forever! Also Sany, my jje-jje, I will never going to forget you, you know? You were always so nice to me. I'm always regretting that I didn't know you faster. if then we could have more fun together. However now you are leaving. So sad but it's ok because I will visit you someday and I will see you on msn everyday, ok? Finally Kai, my lovely girl friend, we went out for almost 2 years now. That's a lot of time. We spend lots of good times together and you are the one who helped and supported me when I had hard times. I really thank you and remember, I always love you. I already had a chance to meet those nice friends and good experience. I am never going to forget those memories and I'm very excited and expect to make all those good memories again next year, my last school year in Stanstead.

JEAN-MICHEL LANOT

Wow! This year went really fast. I can't believe that it is already over. After 4 long years I finally get to bust out of here. And thinking of that makes the end of the year better. This year I have learned and experienced a lot. Some things that I will not forget, like Elliot's, my three house, and the barn. Wow, I will remember these things! And because of these moments, and to all my friends, I was able to enjoy all these years at Stanstead College. I want to say thanks to all the teachers that believed in and trust me and a special thanks to my parents.

FUN YEARS AT STANSTEAD COLLEGE, HAVE TO COME TO A END.
Well I guess that is it, that all I have to say! PEACE!

SHEILAH LUDINGTON

This year has been great and I am grateful for many special moments and people. Most of all I would like to thank my family for always being there... Mitch thanx for listening at 1:00 in the morning... mom thank you for being on call 24/7. Julie (ma grosse crotte) good luck next year (et oui t'est une grosse vache mais je t'aime)... Steph just breathe and one day we will know what they say in the locker rooms... Sarah (tu pu) it's 7:30!!! and "no one puts baby in a corner" everything else that I have to say will be left in Colby... Ashley I am a chicken and being who you are may be hard but worth while... Amy some day they will grow... Katie (the other Colby girl) well thanx for being... "there" ... Annie people should have joined our bandwagon... Marie-Eve (la folle) don't let what others say put you down... Andrea we have lost touch but I will never forget all that we have been through... Tristan I was in the park and it hit me! :)... Jason thanx for all the math notes they helped me through some hard times... Rob don't stop smiling and thanx for always asking if I was ok when no one else bothered... Fogs bowling just can't wait and good luck next year... and Paul (mon niaiseux) thank you so much for showing me how to look at things in a different way XoxO good luck in everything that you do!

JENINIFER MACWILLIAM

Ah... Stanstead College. I wonder what I will remember the most about SC in well lets say 20 years. Possibly, the people, the place (probably not), the homework, the class I have no idea. Well peeps the year has come to an end very quickly and I'm going to miss you. Oh, Ninfa, how I will never forget you; you scared me in the beginning of the year but turned out to be cool. You and Ronald are great together. Jewels, how everything good is from Germany, you crack me up. I will never forget your chocolate pudding umm, umm high-quality stuff. Ximena you just gotta love the horses. Run Caro Run, never stop running!! Mr. P and bio class oh the memoirs that are there. Tim you and your mitosis. Annya. This year at SC has been on of my best times at school. I will never forget it. Thanks everyone for making my year great. Thanks mom and dad for giving me the chance to go to SC. I'm gonna miss you guys sniff, sniff. Peace!!

DOMINIC MALAUSSENA

I'm not a bad guy! I work hard, and I love my kids. So why should I spend half my Sunday hearing about how I'm going to Hell?

-Homer Simpson

JULIA MANK

This year at Stanstead College was the most amazing experience in my life! First of all I want to thank my parents, DANKE!!! Lili and Pem, I love you sooo much!! One of the most influential persons during my stay here was my roomy: Ninfa, I will miss you so much... everything, our talks. You are the best, we had such a great time. We had fun together, learned from each other and became more tolerant. Ximena, I will miss our many talks about "him"!! Jen, thanks for the good food and the nice breaks! Annya and Leigh, my two crazy French people, Shaïda, you were my survival in Math and English (I know you love him!), Ronald (You are one of the nicest guys I've ever met), Edward (Timmy, now its forever in here!), Eddi (You are the funniest person ever!), Sany (I'll come and visit you in Ottawa), Caro (I hope you liked your time at least a bit), Stefan, Chris, Robert (the cooking was so much fun and so delicious!). Further I want to thank Mme Bélanger for guiding me so well through the year, Mrs Petraki for giving me a good start (I miss you so much!) and Mrs Carruthers for her effort so I can stay. I apologise if I forgot somebody, but I met so many amazing people that I could write a book about it! I will never forget you! Lets stay in touch!

I love you! See you... Julia ;)

DAVID MAROSI

Purple to red, lennoxville to Stanstead, Crusader to Spartan, BCS to Stanstead. A year ago I would not have been able to imagine it. At the beginning of the year I would not have been able to predict how happy I was here, and how many amazing people I would meet. A couple thank you's. First off Dougie, you made this all possible, you took a chance when no one else would and for that I am forever grateful. Pete, way more smiles than frowns; eating stuff for money is not a sin!. JD, thanks for being there whenever things start coming up Rob P, KEEP SMILING. Chris, the only person who has the same energy as me, see you Saturday night. Brandon and Sean crayfish bay originals, by the way have you seen my sock? , thanks for the millions of laughs. Jean-Michel, all I have to say is this. ....ha. Cowan. Sheilah you can sleep anywhere you want to. To my family. Uncle Tom, Sue, Mom, Erika, Emily, Belle without your support and love I am nothing. To all the teachers I have never known patience like yours. To everyone who smiled at me in the halls or held a door open for me, thank you. To my friends from down the road JK, FM, JS, CV, thank you for your unending friendship. The echoes of "Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah" will always be playing in my head. See you all next year...

SONNY MARTORANA

Time flies ... I had good and bad experience living in a boarding school away from my family (5 days a week "Rioux"). Ill work out till I die AND NO ITS NOT STEROIDS girls and teachers. Vicky I would of never done it without you always telling me "Its ok sonny its past forget about it, it will be ok calm down minais..." (j'taime boubou) AMIE POUR LA VIE. Chris C. Thanks for everything (G in Magog bro), Vanessa we really should of began talking before -May 13th 2003- I love you. Pinto my Italian brother, this summer BROOO -TR-!!! It was sssssick bro!!! OMG!!!! Mohammed :Abdulqadir Is the smartest and best guy I have ever met and is by far my best friend EVER!!! I could trust this kid with my life!!! Mo all the times at my house with all the girls, bro next year there we'll have lots more YAAAA BABY! (girls, racing and cars defines me the BEST)!!! SORRY TO ALL THE OTHERS I MIST (COWAN, Marie, laura .A all ect). THANK YOU (MOM, ANTHONY, AND DANY)..... But dad.... all the times you drove down to meet with faculty! Dad YOUR MY HERO you'll always have the biggest place in my heart you will never know cause we d'ont talk about that but YOU ARE MY Best friend My worst enemy at times and the whole families saviour!!! Ti Amo Padre!!!!

COLE McCOMBER

Greetings! Well, coming to S. C. wasn't a bad idea. Special thanks to my parents! I had much fun, met a lot of cool people here and I wanted to thank my teachers for putting up with me for nine months. I'd like to say goodbye to some twelfth graders: B, Go Wildcats! Shawn, represent! Teddy! Peter, the most patient person alive; Martin, my German companion. Julio, see you at Cornell someday. Mike, the 3-point cook; Foglietta, the goal of the year. Paul, slashes or no slashes! Zinay, see you @ the sanitarium! Pinto, I'll remember the training tips. Copestake, so long Andrew! Lenz, I'm not that heavy. For all the ladies on campus keeping it real. I don't know if my friend Tristan will be coming back K So, Bumblebee Tuna Man! You too, Cowan! Through the screen, not off the screen! Props go out to my two awesome roommates, Gray and Elliott (I think I'm the better guitarist). Everyone in Bugbee have a fun summer Thanks, Mr. Wells. Take care Dunn; Thanks for letting me watch all those hockey games on TV and all that food I ate. Coach Mac thanks for all the ice advice. Mr. Rioux, am I really banished to Bugbee next year? Speaking of next year - I know our hockey season wasn't great' K But if I come back for grade 12, we're taking it all, boys! TO BE CONCLUDED - CM#19 -

KATIE McNAMARA

To think it has only been 5 years... Thank you mum and dad for your endless support and love. Kim and Lisa, I love you guys with all my heart, life would not be so gratifying without you two. Annie, you're my first Stanstead memory: the little French girl with the pigtails (haha!). Mais tu sais que j'taime! To the Colby prefects: wish I had been one of you for just a little longer. Hunt: "Hi, my name's Katie, but you can call me Kat." Ashley, our relationship revolves around food, mmm... tuna. Sheilah, I'm not Elmo. Steph, if you don't tell Sheilah I'm not Elmo, I'm going to kick you. Amy & Steph, think anyone ever found those pennies? By the way Nick, you CAN fit three girls in a bathing cap (so you owe us $100). Copestake, sorry for causing you any discomfort, (yes, I still owe you dinner)... Pinto, shhh! Rob, you're my inspiration, thanks for the late-night chats. Jason, tu sais que je t'adore. When are we going to launch our modeling careers? To all my teachers, thank you again and again. Best of luck to all the grads in the real world and for all those returning, see you next year...

ASHLEY NEWMAN

The year is coming to an end and I am sad to see it go. Mama and Daddy- thanks for the support and sacrifices, but most of all thanks for putting up with me. Maggie, the greatest sister- I'm your biggest fan. To the Colby prefects- we've been through it all: the good, the bad, and the psycho, but hey we're all still alive (Raill). Colby Girls- you kept me entertained. Katie and Annie- the house was never the same. Sheilah- your useless facts, our nightly talks... too much to say. Raill- ADD is right. Don't run toward the fire! Room confined. We need sleep. Hunt- you're a sarcastic bee, but you've taught me how to laugh. Amy- tarot cards: boy does my future suck. Katie- Hi my name's Katie, you can call me Cat. Our drive to Montreal (almost), our year-long craving for BeniWonTon's... Jason..... Kim- zebra socks in public. Banana- there's a fire in the road! Marie-Eve- Oui oui oui oui, non non non non, we go way back. Don't grow up too fast. Sez Woody- Be good. Miss you. (Ah the creativity!) To those in the play- it was a long and painful experience (I'd do it again) Coach G- thanks for the season, I will never cut corners. Mrs. McNamara- you kept me well fed, your home was my shelter, thanks. Jeff- Dude! It's been great. I'm your brown-eyed girl, but I guess we're not 'kosher'. Goodbye for now Stanstead, see you next year.

If you wouldst live long, live well, for folly and wickedness shorten life.

LEIGH PARTINGTON

The good, the bad and the ugly. I would like to thank Mr. Simard and Mr. Denney for March Break memories, laughs and Wanted Posters. Warm thank-yous to my parents, relatives and especially my aunt Mary for their support and driving. Annya, may the cretins be forgotten, the "compote" conserved and memories last forever. L'heure du the dans la salle de bain. Between Subway cookies, msn convos, camping and tents, bird masks and bets, Betty and Veronica will someday rule the world! Bouaahaha! Nicole, your child has finally finished high school! I hope that someday, over a bowl of Cheerios, you will remember the good times: your little voice (must get to the water supply!), Spit, Softball, Mr. Tinklesworth, cookie dough in your car and laughs. Andy has no idea what he's getting in to. Sandrine, your determination is inspiring, even though you somehow manage to hit your head every time...you know...you're the coolest. Cadbury eggs, daffy and the cannibalistic bed. Alicia, always a source of amusement (you know we love you). Vanessa (aka roomie) your creativity will live on forever. Avi, do the turtle! Martin, la classe d'histoire et les paris. Matt, your womanly legs are cool! My last hurrah: Take my strong hand!

ROB PERRETTA

Another year at Stanstead is complete. Felt like I blinked and we were already in June. This year was AMAZING in many ways, a lot of cool new kids came here that I became close with, me and my old friends just kept piling on the memories (ill get to that soon), football, rugby and especially hockey were redOnculous, and I spent the whole year with my love, Julie. Jon and Paul, I'm still trying to figure out why Stevey Wonder and Ray Charles can't read. Jeff it was fun while it lasted, you warned me. Jason, Chris so what number are u guys on now, 2 lights mean record doesn't it, November break was crazy. DEE900. Brandon and Big Pete, you guys were there for me through everything, through good and bad. You guys are my closest friends, I thank you for everything, I love u guys, this place will never be the same without u Julie, the memories we shared this year would take up this whole yearbook. The love we share is unbreakable; I still can't believe your mine. I cant wait for our dreams to come true. U have my heart, goodluck and I'll be with u everystep of the way 143. Thank you to my family, I love u guys with all my heart, Tommy next year kid. BOYZ, MS AC DM SI NM TB JM MA AD RL NI DZ MC Fo sho, HOT SOUP MIKE D FDNY 9-11-01 MISS U CUZ

EUGEUNI PETROUSSEVITCH

Of all the years at Stanstead College this one was the most appreciated because I thought I wasn't going to come back. Fortunately I was given an opportunity to finish my last year of high school at SC. I am glad that this is my last year and I will be out of High School at last. Stanstead College gave me more experience and taught me more things than any other schools I've been to. I'll never forget the people I met at Stanstead College like my teammates, classmates and roommates and everyone else. I will visit this place next year to watch Stanstead play sports and I expect the red and white jerseys to beat BSC at every sport.

STEPHANIE RAILL

Human, another year's over and one more to go! I'd like to thank my parents for their many sacrifices and support; I hope I've made you proud. To my fellow Colby prefects, we've been through so much—but we made it!! I'll never forget our pointless nights doing absolutely nothing and making fools of ourselves... it was fun! Hunt, you are a totally different person at night! (dance baby dance). "Hey, it's pick on Ashley day... everyday!" j/k, luv your roomie! Sheilah, we've been through too much, so many laughs... to the point where I couldn't breathe! Amy—"I like big butts and I cannot lie". Colby girls, you made it exciting! Katie, think anyone found those pennies? Kim, my little punk (zebra socks in public!) keep smiling! Lisa, now you can go dance around... lol. Jason, if only my closet wasn't so messy, Jon, dirty dancing will always be a classic! "The patchanka!" Montse, hot salsaaaa! Andrea, ask another one... Julie, our prop dance! Leblanc, we'll always be the triple F's! M-E-jet adore, ne change pas! Annie, ahhh those birds!! Tristan, I'm sorry but you'll never understand women. Woody - good times (No cookie 4 you!) I dunno what I would have done if you weren't only a phone call away... Cynthia, my lil' sis, remember - everything is okay in the end, and if it's not okay, then it's not the end... Wow, it went by so fast; just to show that time flies when you're having fun! Well... Until next year, I'm out.

ANNYA SCHNEIDER

So many memories, dreams do come true and after this experience, my life will never be the same! After two years at SC I realized how much I've learned and how much I have experienced here. The friends I made and people I met changed my life and I'll never forget them. Leigh (la fille dans le bain) le 28, 24, March trip, le camping, l'heure du thé, des paris... On s'est embarqué dans quoi !!! Oublie pas les "mots" étranges: shibela, crétins, compote, ... Ne laisse pas des Harry Potter te jeter par dessus un pont et ferme les portes! Je ne t'oublierai jamais! Nicole (Babou, mommy) First of all, Thank u for always being there for me when I needed protection against the evil people. I learned so much from u! So many memories: trina cd, our girl talks, cheerios, cookie dough, piazzetta, crazy voices, andy's video tape, helium balloons! Remember that I'll always be your daughter! Sandrine (petite) qu'est ce que j'aurais fait si tu n'avais pas été là! les souvenirs sont nombreux: vieille douane, backstreet boys en français, des heures au telephone, les milles desserts, nos conversations sans fin... Finalement tu vas t'échapper de ce trou! Tu vas me manquer! Alicia, I will always think you are funny! Finally, all of you that made my journey here at SC, a wonderful experience: follow your dreams and may all your wishes come true. Maman et papa je vous aime du fond de mon coeur... merci pour tout !!!

ANNIE THIBEAULT

Holy cow, it's been 5 years, and still one to go! Merci maman de m'avoir donné la chance de venir à Stanstead, je me rends compte de la chance. Julie, wow... quoi dire... je vais vraiment m'ennuyer, ça sera jamais pareille sans toi, phone bill better be expensive! T'aime trop and reach for the moon. Alex, roomie, great times, good laughs, you're an amazing person never change, you're the mack! You made the school year that much better for me. Love u tons. Laura, where would we be if it weren't for maywests?! Thanks for everything you're just amazing. Salsa! Mmm! Look at the stars... j't'aime plus!!! Mel - The tooth fairy is coming to get u... Best of luck next year, better come visit dude! Raill glad to be your favourite! Memories ill never forget. Katie, whoa, you and I go way back... yah u know the first day of school. LOL. Good stuff... I'll never forget. Liane, j't'aime, you complete me!! Marie, mini-me! T'es mon amour... Webster l'an prochain. Simon et David, je vous adorent vous êtes les meilleurs tit frères. Sheilah... no tickle!! Hunt.. we were roommates for 2 weeks..lol Mr. Rioux, thanks for everything, your great help! Mr Grenier, Mr Vandyke, I had lots of fun in sports, you're great coaches! To all of you coming back... I'll see u next year...

PIOTR TOMASZEWSKI

Stanstead College...

At this place the Ovid's "Carpe Diem" can be understood in a whole new sense, since the year at Stanstead went by so quickly. Most of the time it was a great experience and for that I want to thank equally students, faculty and maintenance; special thanks go to my roommate Sonny Martorana, my advisor Madame Chartrand and of course my coaches: Mr. Grenier, Mr. Simard, Mr. Scheib and Phil Dunn.

I will never forget the trips to Vancouver, Shawinigan (Jeffrey, Jeffrey...) and Halifax, they have been altogether an incredible experience and were part of the reason why this for me extremely busy year went by so quickly.

Groote, man sieht sich hoffentlich im Juni bei der Love Parade!

Have all a great summer, looking forward to see you all,

Vaya con Dios...

FRANCIS VEILLETTE

Pour commencer j'aimerais remercier mes parents pour m'avoir permis de profiter de cette formidable aventure qui est Stanstead. Je sais que j'ai souvent chialé et tout mais c'était une très bonne expérience. Hey sonny c'est bien en fait ce que tu fais mais c'est pas grave tu étais le premier de nous à sortir d'ici c'est déjà ça!! Ouin pis merci pour les deux années tu étais vraiment un bon chum pis un GROS merci pour ton party c'était bien le fun. Phil (le gros man) on a eu pas mal de fun ensemble pis toute la plate que l'année est passée vite comme ça! Tk on va se revoir l'an prochain! Martin comment ça va?? Ouin cette année tu nous a pas mal manqué à toute la gang mais on a eu quand même du fun le temps que tu étais ici!! MO when you got here we didn't really like each other but we got along and we had a lot of fun together. I hope ill see you again bro. Pinto ta pas fini de m'appeler le (Frenchman) l'année est finie mais on va se revoir l'an prochain c'est sur le gros pis on va encore tripper! Tk pour conclure un remerciement spécial à mr. Rioux pour ces deux belles années que vous m'avez données pis un autre remerciement pour avoir mis un de mes chums dehors... c'était brave!!

JEFFERY WAN

Wow! Three years have been just passed! I have so many appreciations to so many people. But first of all, I would like to thank God for giving me an opportunity to learn many things and develop in many ways at Stanstead College. Second of all, I would like to thank my parents who always support me to find this wonderful school. Thank for all the teachers and my friends at SC, you brought me a lot of great memories here! Thanks Mr. Van Dyke and Mr. Jansen for teaching me science subjects, I've learned not only for these subjects from you, but the problems of my study attitude, I've gained a lot of experiences. Su-Kai, thanks for playing basketball with me for two years, maybe I am just a 'Little Bird' now, but I hope I'll be a "Big Eagle" next year for the team. Allen, Mark and Michael, you guys are the main characters on the basketball court of the team. Without you, we would have worse games this year and I wouldn't learn great basketball techniques from you. Luke, your intelligence always solved my academic problems. Micheal Solar, you are the best and funniest roommate I've ever met. Jason Ou, thanks for your "food". By the way, your 'Last Blade' technique is incredible, I believe no one is able to beat you! Jason Cowan, you are the funniest I've ever seen! There is still a bunch of people I would like to mention and appreciate to in three years, but unfortunately I have no more space! I hope people at SC had good time this year and will have fantastic time in next year.

RICK WON

I can't believe that I'm graduating this year. 3 years seem like such a long time but it just passed really quickly for me. Sometimes, I was a good boy. However, sometimes, I became a nature lover, (You know what I mean by that, Mr. Simard) So many things happened in 3 years. Now I'm graduating this year. I'm so happy to have a successful life. I'll never forget about three years of Stanstead life.

By the way, I want to say thanks to my parents first of all, who sent me here to have a good school life, and my roommate Francis, and so many other friends, and all of the teachers who taught me, and my advisor Mr. Telling who helped me to be a good boy, I learned it from all of what they told me and showed me. Thanks to all!

-R.I.C.K.-

TIMOTHY WOOD

I can't believe how fast time flew by. It seems like just yesterday I was in the Bugbee day student room getting ready for my first year. Writing this little text really makes me realize how long I have until school is over and friends depart. Over the years I have made many memories, which I can reflect on and have a good laugh about. I owe this to my parents and teachers who have taught me over the years. If there is one memory I would like to share with you all it would be when Miss Campbell (Mini Miss) sat down on a cake about 4 times before our 7th grade class (which was at the end of the day) and we being the young children we were almost got her to sit on the SAME cake 5 or so times within a day. With that in mind see all of you next year and have a lot of fun to those who are not returning. Of course I got to say goodbye to bio class what a time I had a lot of great memories. Poking with pens, albino midget LOL, noodle in the ear oh and grrrrr PEACE!

A Message from the Editors-In-Chief

By the end of the school year, a big question on everyone's mind was "Is the yearbook going to get done?" As you are now reading this, you can answer for yourself that we have indeed. (Wouldn't be much of a yearbook staff if we didn't!)

We would first like to apologize to everyone who didn't get in the book (if anyone didn't get in the book), and most importantly, to all of those whose names we didn't spell right! We try to check all of them, but with the variety of names (everything from Abulqadir, to Zermeno) a few always get past us. We are sorry to those people; please know that it isn't on purpose.

It has not been an easy year! We have learned many lessons, and always the hard way. We would like to say, as we hope that everyone will read this, that the yearbook doesn't start, work, or finish itself (our motto in the final days of labor). It takes many dedicated members to work on this book, a continuous tape of Louie Louie, and many dedicated hours of time. In the past three years, we have watched the number of members drop from over 40 in the 1998 edition, to our courageous team of 6 this year. Note that this is a loss of 34 people, and in these 5 years, not one page had been cut from the book! If you do the math, that means that each member this year had to work on just about 40 pages each, compared to the 6 that each person had to do in our 1998 edition.

It is a widespread rumor that Spectrum is a lot of work, and we won't lie, it is. With two people dropping out, it made this year that much harder. Remember, the more people we have, the better it is. Spectrum is always going to be a lot of work, as it is the second largest yearbook in the province! If you really enjoy looking at these pages, and seeing your friends, teachers, and memories, we ask that you think about helping, and joining us on our yearly race against time, to complete another edition of Spectrum! Yes, you will hear about the work, but you don't hear about the fun, and the feeling of watching 300 books being given out, that you've worked on. Seeing the twinkle in peoples eyes as they look back in time, and re-live a piece of their lives. It's an amazing feeling to be able to look at a page in the yearbook, and tell people that you did it. It's amazing to say you were a part of that. It is you people that make this book! Never forget that!

We would like to thank three people who made this year's book possible. First is Rob Retchless, who was Editor-in-Chief of last year's book, and who came back during summer vacation to help us finish this year. And Mr. Peter Ashworth, who has seen more yearbooks at Stanstead than any other member of the school. He built it. He came out during his retirement to help us finish things up when we didn't think we could. This book is in your hands right now because of these people, we all own them a great deal. Third, and finally, Mr. Steve Weeks, who has been our representative from Jostens, the publishers of this book, for many more years than any single member of Spectrum can remember. This book is in memory of Steve Weeks, who passed away just after the 2002-2003 school year ended. He helped build this book from the ground up, and it's in part because of him that this book is what it is today. The Spectrum has lost a dear friend, whose efforts will not be forgotten.

It has been a year of many troubles, but as you have this book now, those troubles did not overwhelm us. We hope you enjoy the 2003 edition of the Spectrum. We truly believe that each and every one of those hours of work was worth it. We hope to have more of you on board for the 2004 edition, you are always welcome. And now we have some more business to attend to, for as we write this there are still 121 more pages to be done. So we will say adieu and goodbye... this yearbook is hard, but we see no reason to give it up... no reason at all...

There is fate, but it only takes you so far. Because once you're there, it's up to you to make it happen.
—"Can't Hardly Wait"

Following a series of championship seasons, the 2002 Spartans returned to the real world with a losing record. This was clearly a "rebuilding" year with only a handful of starters returning from the 2001 championship team. After a hard fought and encouraging 7-7 tie in our season opener against Alexander Galt, the team slipped to a disappointing 0 and 5 record for the remainder of the season. Clearly the season highlight came on a beautiful October weekend when the team traveled to Oakville, Ontario for our annual exhibition fixture against Appleby College. The Spartans rallied for their best team effort of the season and walked away with a convincing 44-16 victory to remain undefeated against Appleby. Although the team failed to win against our ETIAC opponents, each game was extremely competitive with the final outcome often in doubt until the dying minutes. Youth and inexperience proved to be the main factors in the team's performance and associated season record. However, in many respects, this season can be interpreted as a learning experience, one to grow and build on in the coming years. As coaches we commend the twenty-nine athletes comprising this year's team for their dedication, hard work and good sportsmanship throughout the 2002 season. M.V.P. Chris Channell, Major "S" Chris Channell, Senior "S" Brandon Forino, Robert Lenz.

Senior Girls Soccer

Coach: Mr. E. Van Dyke

Captains: V. Armstrong, A. Thibeault

The 2002 edition of Senior Girls Soccer began as the very definition of "rebuilding year". Things looked bleak in September. Only 5 returning players, and one lone

Grade 12. In fact, with a dearth of senior age girls at the school, 3 juniors were asked to play up. Fortunately for us, Hannah, Lyss and Sarah gladly accepted, and made an invaluable contribution to the team. To further test our mettle, we were only healthy for the final third of the season. Nine players out of 16 were on injured reserve at some point in the campaign. We played a portion of one league game with 10 on the field, and needed two more junior players to accompany us to CAIS to ensure that Stanstead could finish the national tournament with enough players (thanks Kim and Marie-Eve). So, in a nutshell, we were young, inexperienced, and injury-plagued. But under the guidance of Captain Annie Thibeault and the other returning seniors (Vicky, Andrea, Melissa and Steph), the season developed into an unqualified success. Effort became consistent, skill level, drills, and team possession improved, and by seasons end we were beating teams who had beaten us earlier in the season, which is all a coach can ask for. Case in point: The Study beat us 1-0 in September. We beat them 4-1 in October. Case in point #2: MVR shellacked us 4-0 in early October, and finished 1st in the ETIAC. We met them in the Playoffs and tied them 0-0, then lost in penalty shots. Rebuilding is not a word that should necessarily have negative connotations. What happened this year was that a group of athletes molded themselves, almost from scratch, into a cohesive soccer squad that will continue to improve next year, as all but 2 players are returning in 2003. We learned a lot about playing proper soccer, and I am proud of each player who continued to work to improve, despite the early losses. I look forward to next year, and thanks to all for an enjoyable season.

Senior Boys' Soccer

Coach: Mr. E. Grenier

Captain: J. Foglietta, M. Siemsen

The theme to my athletic assembly speech this year was "Success is relative." Here's why. The 2002 edition of the Spartans varsity soccer team lost seven grade 12 starters from the previous year. We had to rely on four 14 year old starters to fill some of those shoes. The season began with a soccer jamboree down at St. Paul's School in New Hampshire where the boys played against some of the best soccer teams they will ever see at this age level. We lost. We got killed, but I pulled off the older players knowing that it is better to lose with the younger guys because they will remember and will carry this experience into next season. Success is relative to what these guys do next year with that experience. We worked on passing and midfield ball control, dominance really, and after shifting a few players around, we finally had the core starting group and played out the season never losing by more than a 3 goal differential. This is huge considering we should have probably been on the receiving end of some serious whoopings. Success is relative to the scores by which these guys lost - showing a lot of heart and determination and losing in the last minutes of some very close games. The highlight of the season was that week in October we spent in beautiful British Columbia at the CAIS national soccer tournament. We played our best soccer. The boys represented the school well and sent a clear message that little Stanstead does things right. Success, though we only won 1 game at this tourney, is relative to how impressed the coaches and athletic directors were with our school. Thanks fellas, I was proud of you out there. Thanks to Mr. Simard who looked after every detail to ensure a memorable experience for everyone. Special mentions go to Piotr Tomaszewski, Dave Zinay, Jon Foglietta and Martin Siemsen, our Senior S winners. A super special mention to Paul Kim, the only Major S and Bobby Moore most valuable player trophy winner. He is only in grade 10. Thanks for being a fine and slightly crazy role model to younger players.

Junior Girls Soccer

Coach: Mrs. L. Retchless

Captains: H. Hutchins & Km. McNamara

If you were to check the ETIAC League end of season results you would learn that the Junior Girls' did not win any games, however, success is not only measured by winning. The girls were externally optimistic. They never gave up and each league game was a new opportunity to try a new position or to work on enhancing skills. They are a "successful" team because they supported each other and played beyond their ability to hold stronger teams at low scores. The score at the end of the first half of many games was 0-0. It was in the second half when our game would get sloppy and this allowed the opponents to take advantage and score. The true picture of the Junior Girls' 2002 team is that they had fun together and were true Spartans; an exemplary model of good sportsmanship. Charlotte Hince was our professional and supportive manager, who made sure our uniforms and equipment were accounted for. A Junior "S" went to Kim McNamara and Jennifer Bauer for their leadership and dedication to the game. May Libby, our busy goalie, was recognized with a Junior "S", as well as Marie Eve Lemay who takes the Spartan theme to the extreme, beating the opponents to the ball, trying over and over again to set up plays, never giving up. This energy and support was exciting to watch. The true picture is a team of girls with heart who gave it all they had and this is what sport is all about. Great season girls!

Mrs. L. Retchless

Back Row: C. Hince, J. Smith, M. Sanz, A. Wilson, E. Ferry, A. Fernandez, V. Law, V. Alveraz, M. Marin, Mrs. L. Retchless
Front Row: J. Bauer, M. Libby, M. Lemay, H. Hutchins, D. Osei, Km. McNamara, L. Shannon, D. Lopez, S. Matsumara

The Junior Boys Soccer season was thoroughly enjoyed by both players and coaches and the progress made by this team was a pleasure to be a part of. The team of 19 varied in skill and experience but they all came together to form a soccer team that was competitive and no push-over for the opposition. An opening loss of 7-0 at the hands of Galt was quickly put at the back of everyones mind when we lost only 1-0 to the same team at the BCS Tournament the following day. We finished the league campaign in 3rd place with 2 Wins, 1 Tie and 5 Losses, which ensured we qualified for the play-offs. This was a huge achievement and an excellent record in a tight league. The intense practices and the boys commitment to the team helped to instill a fighting spirit and pride for the Stanstead colours which they deserve a lot of credit for. Their ability and commitment was never in question and when a team gives 100% you cannot ask for anymore. This ensured we had a chance in every game we played. Thanks to Joey Pape who served as our manager and was always there for players and coaches alike to make sure we had everything we needed. Congratulations to A.J. Nelson on his Junior S and we wish everyone on the team good luck and hope all of you will be out on the Stanstead College soccer fields next fall.

X-Country Running

Coach: Mrs Elliot & Mrs Portelli

The Cross Country Running team of 2002 comprised a team of forty-nine students divided into the competitive and non-competitive group. The competitive team participated in the four events: The BCS run, the Alexander Galt run, our own, Stanstead College meet and the ETIAC finals, held at

BCS. We began our season by participating in the Terry Fox run also held at BCS. Our results were commendable. Our top senior girls were Sadrine Lanot and Lauren Cuenant. Our top Senior boys were, Jeffrey Wan, Cole McComber and Rhett Jacobi. Our top Bantam boys were Karim Silhy and Pablo Ruiz. We were very proud of the other members of the competitive team who ran all races and gave their best: Ashley Newman, Leigh Partington, Lianne Quenneville, Juan Ignacio Zermeno, Vivien Yu and Nathalie Lussier. The non-competitive team practiced daily and participated in the Galt competition. Their support at the running events was greatly appreciated, as was their help at our own Stanstead meet. A team highlight was the hikes to the Pinnacle, Orford and from the apple orchard hill behind the school. It was wonderful to be outside on those beautiful, sunny crisp fall days!

We placed in Senior Boys, Senior Girls and Bantam boys in all events. At the ETIAC, held at BCS, Sandrine received a silver medal and Lauren the bronze for Senior Girls. Jeffrey Wan won the silver and Rhett the bronze for Senior boys. Karim Silhy won the gold for Bantam boys and was far ahead of the pack.

Karim Silhy was awarded a Bantam 'S', Sandrine Lanot and Lauren Cuenant were awarded the Senior Girls' 'S' and Jeffrey Wan was awarded a Major 'S', as well as, the William Greenshield Trophy at our Fall Sports' Assembly.

We congratulate all members of the team for their participation and especially to those who worked hard each day to improve their times. Running is a true test of personal resolve and can only build strong character.

The 2002-2003 Spartans season began with some very disappointing results in the months of November and December, finishing with a record of 5 wins and 8 losses. The Christmas break proved very beneficial as the Spartans posted a 17 - 4 record for the rest of the year, including impressive wins over New England prep schools and top Quebec Midget teams. Every member of the team should be proud of this impressive turn-around that was the product of a great deal of hard work, some of it Thursday mornings at 6:30 AM. Unfortunately, a 12 game winning streak was broken by Provincial Championships, Howard S. Billings, in the AAESQ semi-finals. The Spartans played perhaps their poorest game of the season and were plagued, once again, by a lack of discipline that resulted in several unnecessary penalties. The loss was particularly bitter in that Stanstead was hosting the tournament for the first time. As always, Mr. Simard, did an unbelievable job of making it a first class event.

There were also many individual contributions that should be noted. The outstanding play and motivational leadership of Rob Perretta, who returned after a courageous battle with leukemia, had to be the highlight of the year. Cole McComber used his quickness and tireless work ethic to become one of the best penalty killers that has ever donned a Stanstead jersey. Team captain, Shawn Iserhoff, entertained fans all year with his creative play and timely goals, leading the team in every offensive category and winning the MVP award. Congratulations to these three players for their Major S awards. Thank you to all of the players who worked so hard and made so many sacrifices. A special thanks to co-coach and good friend, Mr. Wells, who took on greater role in practices, and whose sage advice is invaluable.

The 2002-03 season found 14 brave souls venturing down to the rink to be introduced to new coaches Mrs Steel and Mr Planetta. As an experienced goalie himself, Mr Planetta worked extensively with both our goalies, as well as with the defensive pairs. Our team ranged from players with many years experience to rookies who took to the ice for the first time as part of a team. A lot of time was spent early in the season developing (or honing) foundational skills. Our team focus was on enjoying the game, respect and sportsmanship, and skill development. The season highlight for all was the ETIAC championship game. Our rookie goalie stepped up that very morning as our regular goalie could not play and kept us in the game. Various forwards were unfortunately sidelined during the game by a vicious flu bug but every single player contributed during this heart stopping game. Down 3-1 going into the 3rd period, this team of determined young ladies fought back to a 3-3 tie and with one minute left to play, found the net a final time. Goal scorers were Liane Quennville and Kim McNamara. It was a privilege to a part of your season ladies. ETIAC CHAMPIONS 2003!

First of all, I would like to thank Mr Simard, Mr Foster and Richard for their great help throughout this swimming season. I will tell you quite honestly, when I arrived at the pool the first day of the season, I had a lot of expectations. I was telling myself that we had a great year last season and I was hoping that the new swim team would be as remarkable. Fortunately, I was not disappointed. Although my swimmers were less experimented, their progress was absolutely astonishing. My two captains, Teddy and Robert, did an amazing job at helping me coaching the swim team. They were dedicated at motivating the swimmers to work hard and give their best at each and every practice or competition. They directed the warm-up and encouraged the swimmers to push their limits. The swimmers were surprisingly strong, because it is not easy to swim when it is - 20 degrees outside. A lot of them were sick and tired, but they learned how to help and encourage each other. Some anecdotes will stay in my memories. At each practice, Ximena Del Toro, complain about the cold water, even if the water's temperature is 85 degrees. « Miss the water is so cold today » Also, at a competition, Maiko, in breast stroke, did a free style turn. The official look at me in a weird way. Next year, we will make sure that when we compete in a 50 meters race, we really do 50 meters and not 25 and we will try to be in the pool instead of being in the restroom! Finally, I had a great time with my team, because I was surrounded by a beautiful bunch of human dolphins.

Expectations were quite low at the beginning of this season. As we only had one returning player from last year's championship team, the rest of the squad was made up of eight first-year seniors plus two walk-ons. Clearly, it looked to be a rebuilding year. However, the first day of try-outs illustrated two important features of this year's group of players: despite their lack of experience, they were athletic, and they were fast. So we played to our strengths, and became a full-court pressing, fast-break team. This running-at-all-costs approach paid dividends. Despite inexperience, inconsistent rebounding, rookie turnovers, and abysmal outside shooting, we were often difficult to beat because of our in-your-face attitude. We pressed at every opportunity, and we ran the fast break any chance we got. In fact, we scored many points in transition immediately after getting scored upon; hitting easy layups while the other team was still busy congratulating themselves. We improved consistently throughout the first half of the season, and performed extremely well in January. With an impressive 5-1 record at the Mt Independent Schools Tourney, we won the "B" Division plaque. We would have also made the finals of the subsequent BCS Tourney if not for a heartbreaking overtime loss to LCC, in what was our best game of the year. Then, after a 3-week period of frustrating, uninspired play, we bounced back and played well against stronger opposition at the Anderson-Bailly, even though we ended up 5th overall. We then finished the year off with an impressive game against MVR in the final contest of the season. In fact, that final game showcased almost all that we had learned since November, and left me with a very good feeling for 2003-04. The girls learned a lot this year, and in the process finished with a .500 record (18 wins vs 18 losses). Not bad for a "rebuilding year". Not bad at all. In closing, I hope the players learned a few things this year about hard work, team play, positive attitude, passion for the game of basketball, and what it takes to succeed at the senior level. Thanks to Jessica (the best manager I've ever had), and good luck to those moving on at the end of this year. To all those returning, we laid a good foundation this season, and I look forward to a great season next year.

This year's edition of the Spartans was led by returning captain and best overall player, Allen Liu, along with veterans Meng-Hang Ou at the small forward position and Mark Sun at the "big man" spot. While Mark gave at least a foot or more in height to each of the opposing centers he faced, he worked hard at improving his moves and became a real threat for his opponent to defend. Meng-Hang was our main threat for 3-point shots. Jason Ou worked into the starting point guard spot over the course of the season and showed nice improvement. Long Zhao and Jeffrey Wan were brilliant at times and less so at other times, but they did learn about when to shoot and when not to shoot as the season progressed. We had two walk-on German forwards in Chris Groote and Peter Tomaszewski, and two Korean forwards in Rick Won and Jasper Cho, each of whose improvement can be directly related to their effort level. The guard corps was rounded out by Ignacio Diego, Ronald Chang, and Luke Yoon. We had the statistics wizard, Mr. Dunn, who kept stats at each and every game, and these are very helpful in analyzing individual and team results, especially over the long-term.

Just like last year, we did not have a very deep bench, and individual and team fouls hurt us. We also tended to make too many turnovers. Once again, we played an interlocking schedule with the SSIAA-ETIAC this year; our league record was 1-11 and our overall record was 8-23. In the Stanstead Invitational Tournament, we lost to St. Johns in double overtime in the last game of the day. A win would have given us the championship, but the loss dropped us to last place in the tourney! At the Anderson Tournament at Shawinigan High School, we got our revenge on St. Johns, beating them in our pool and advancing to the semi-final where we upset Quebec High to make the final. In the other semi, BCS upset St. Pat's which meant a SC-BCS final. Though we led most of the game, BCS ended up winning by 6. We did qualify for the Visser and were in over our heads at this event, losing all three games by 30 point margins. Our overall record could have been stronger, but in certain games and tournaments, we played everyone in order to improve as a team, rather than just playing the starters. The Anderson Tournament, and our performance in it, was definitely the highlight of our season. We had a fun time in Shawinigan, played well, and also had a great time with the BCS coaches and teams. I enjoyed the fun times and many laughs (ESL III) with this bunch and with my asst. coach Mr. Dunn (and his asst. Miss Broadhurst).

The Bantam Boys Basketball team competed in the ETIAC league and finished with a disappointing 2 - 6 record. Although our record was not what we hoped, I believe that the entire team would agree that there was significant improvement in all players by the end of the season. The future looks bright as the play of the team by the end of the season left great hope for the future of Stanstead Boys Basketball. The most memorable moment of the year was a tight loss on a buzzer beater shot versus Richmond, after being down by 24 at half. Memories include first points, tough defensive stands, acrobatic lay ups, terrific player improvements, and a great bunch of boys to travel with. Eli Birge was the team's Most Improved Player. William (Wei-Yu) Chen was the team's leading scorer, including a 25 point outburst against Richmond. Lucas Jansen was the captain, and received a Bantam 'S' for his efforts.

The Bantam Girls Basketball team had a great season of 6 wins and 5 losses and placed third in our division. Most importantly, their continuous efforts defined the success of our year. Each member of the team drastically improved their skills as players and with much communication and practice they started to work together as a team. Bravo Spartans! Each girl gave significantly to the team and were all key players to the teams' accomplishments. Becky Stuart, Captain and winner of the Bantam "S" could always be depended on for points, foul shots, great defense, rebounds and continuous effort. Congratulations Becky! Chelsea Fortin was our other Captain, who is a true leader! She is always wanting to improve her skills, is a reliable post player and the brains behind the action! Melissa Crook is a talented player where there is nothing she cannot do! She is one of our top scorers, a team player who has a great attitude both on and off the court! Dianne Osei is a fabulous defender and rebounder and will be a dangerous player in her senior years. She came a long way this year and with much dedication she will reach her goals. Shina Matsumura played a key role as one of the point guards on the team. She is very dedicated and always willing to improve and be better. Her fun personality and great attitude made it a pleasure to have her on our team. Marie-Pier Roy improved her game dramatically this year! She is a tough post player and a good rebounder, Rebecca Wilson is a well-rounded player who is always looking to improve her game. She always has a great attitude who played a key role in the success of our second line-up. Fernanda Morales, Michelle Lin, Angel Sun and Katy Rancourt had almost no previous basketball experience before this year and are the team's most improved players. It amazes me as to how quickly someone can learn skills and actually play the game within a week's time! You all came in with a positive attitude wanting to learn as much about the game as possible and you all did it!

Gentlemen, on 22 occasions you heard... "it's a great, great day for a game of rugby football." At the beginning of the year, you were guaranteed a rugby experience and it looked something like this. We flew out of the blocks beating an American university (Holy Cross) freshman team and carried our other successes into the CAIS tournament in Halifax. There we provided the upset of the tournament by beating the Washington Cherry Blossom Tournament champs UCC. We peaked by tying the tournament host King's Edgell 0-0 in an exciting match in front of their school and a large crowd. This gave the school a shot (the first time in the school's collective history of having one in rugby) at playing for a National Championship if we could get by Ashbury but unfortunately we came up short on that fateful, rainy Sunday morning. Other tournament successes included finishing second at the GMAA Sevens and then the next day losing in the consolation final of the Division One New England High School Championships. We had mixed success in ETIAC with a depleted and beaten up team losing in the final that was also our twenty-second game in only our seventh week of rugby! Other highlights would have to include the camaraderie shown within the team and the club; singing "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah" led by our conductor; "feeling the power of 15 acting as one"; believing in the person beside you; "Showtime"; "money"; "hot soup"; club practices; never leaving anything on the field but sometimes leaving a little in your..."; "see that cemetery over there"; and many other fantastic memories the Stanstead College First XV Rugby Football Club will treasure. The side was ably led by the captain Peter Ross (Major S winner) and the pack leaders Rob "Silent Bob" Lenz (Major S), and Rob Perretta (Senior S). Jeff Gray (Senior S) led the side in tries but the MVP was #8 Chris Channell (Major S) whose play was so strong that, quite simply, we won when he played. All those who put on the shirt this year and laid it on the line for the school... thank you.

I love this game. I love this season. I love this team. All coaches are looking for this team; the kind of team that learns throughout the season, has a winning record of 11 wins and 5 losses and learns from the games lost. Coaches don't really want a perfect season because not much can be learned from it other than arrogance and over-confidence – and who wants that? Besides, coaches love to see how teams respond to losing: do they eat each other alive and self-destruct or do they believe and build? You girls believed. Here's what you built.

After losing three out of four games at the CAIS national tournament in Halifax to start the season, we returned stronger than ever. We racked up too many points against our opponents in league play and won the league banner; best team in the league. We dominated the GMAA 7s tournament at LCC by scoring 59 points for and allowing none against to win gold. We play beautiful 7s rugby and are a force to be reckoned with in this part of the country, certainly in this province. The only other XV's losses we had were two heartbreakers to our arch-rival BCS and we knew that the final was going to be a close one. We had no idea how close. That final was a spectacular home game that will go down in the Stanstead books as one of the greatest games played in all sports in my short 3 years at this school. The Stanstead senior girls rugby team (and I mean team) won that game in double overtime. That's sudden-death double overtime! We earned that trophy the hard way. Many girls learned the values that this sport has to offer on that day. Those values will last a lifetime.

On that note, I want to write to the girls on this team who are re-reading this article ten, twenty or even thirty years from now. Will you remember? The kicking game. Capture the flag rugby. The tackling drills. The backs' plays. The iron plate forwards. The lineouts. The Auckland square. Running the lanes. The six basic drills. The gauntlet. Scrummaging, rucking & mauling. Mr. G.'s sketches. The posts. The field. The blood, sweat and tears...

When you walk past Philip field again someday, take a moment to smell the grass and reflect on days gone by. You who have given so much to the game, let the game give back to you - and it does give back in mysterious ways – remember the Marino-Salkeld-Grenier picture? I have coached some of you for three years, will you remember? I will.

Coach G.

PS. Annie & Sarah H., captains and major S winners, thank you. Andie, MVP and major S winner, enjoy the game ball.

This was by far the most successful team I have been involved with in five years of coaching this level of rugby at Stanstead College. In 15's play at bantam we had 4 wins and 2 losses, and we were undefeated at junior winning all six of our games. It is certainly more fun when you win, but this is only part of the equation for me this year. What made this year especially enjoyable was the manner in which our victories were achieved. We came from behind on more than one occasion, both at bantam and junior, to claim victory rather than accept defeat. We played good, clean rugby and our comportment both on the field and off was exemplary. This season was a lot of fun because we won with class and determination. "S" recipients include Jose Carlos De Las Fuentes, J.C. Roy and Eli Birge at bantam, as well as Paul Chiu, Theo Creary and Rodrigo Villareal at junior. I congratulate each award winner and all the players on a most enjoyable season. You are all champions.

Take four experienced players, add 18 keen rookies, drop a huge amount of rain, sprinkle sparingly with sunshine, throw in a rugby ball and Mrs Steel's bad jokes and voila, a great season magically appears. Grit, determination, a sense of fun, a desire to learn, a willingness to try – every single girl on this team brought these qualities and more to our season. A lack of appropriate level competition made it a season full of practices with few games but this team found a way to make each practice an upbeat and meaningful time. The leadership exhibited by captains May Libby and Leah Shannon was consistent and outstanding. The desire and competitive instincts of Ashley Lalonde and Elisabeth Anderson pulled each girl to a higher level.

Attendance at the LCC tournament found us return to the school with Bantam 7's banner which was a huge boost to everyone's confidence. All in all a successful season with a team which I felt was a pleasure to coach and to be a part of.

Remember

As we go through the years
We meet many amazing people.
Some we will see way too much of
Others not nearly enough.
Each person had his or her part
Regardless of whether or not
You invited them into your life.
Even though we are moving on
We will not forget those people
They have all taught us something
Those who put you down
Taught you to achieve
Those who supported you
Gave you more confidence
Those who hurt you
Proved how great your true friends really are
Those who told your biggest secrets
Taught you to move on
And those who lied to you
Proved that the truth can hurt.
Never forget those people
They teach you the most important lessons of all
They taught you that life goes on
And you will heal over time
Without knowing it
They have done you a favor
So even though words hurt
When you add all of those people together
You have been taught to live.

Key

Some people don't know what to see,

Me, I know, I have the key

What key? You say.

I'll tell you today.

My key opens every door closed to me

Every one, and with many possibilities.

I can do anything I need.

All I need is a lead,

To this magical place

Of just me, and my key.

March Break Trip

UK Tour 2003

The March trip to England, Scotland and Ireland was in the planning stages as the world prepared itself for war in Iraq. The deadline for the invasion kept getting pushed back, and we had to make a decision as to whether or not to go. We did decide to go forward, and created an interesting itinerary which would see us stay 4 or 5 nights in each of the three cities. As such, we would explore each city from our base hotel, and not have to pack and move from hotel to hotel each night as we had done in past years.

There were, after a few late cancellations, a group of 14 young men and women who embarked on this memorable journey with the two old men travellers. We were not long in London before war was declared and the streets were filled with protestors and police. A few late night fire alarms in our hotel (the largest in London) also helped to make us a little nervous, but all in all our time in London was great. We saw Oxford, Stratford and a lot of other sights and museums. We also managed to arrange a few visits with alumni and former faculty as well as a formal alumni reception where we met a number of alumni both recent and older. On we flew to Edinburgh, where we spent our few days in Scotland. What a beautiful city, much less busy than London, but interesting as well. Our guide treated us to his accent, his garb, and even a bagpipe demonstration which was a big hit. We experienced national rugby games shown on huge screens in a park overlooked by the Edinburgh castle. Our next stop was Dublin, a young, vibrant university city which was another fine stop on our journey. We had a super guide as well in Dublin; he connected well with students and teachers alike and he and the bussy kept us laughing with their singing and jokes. We saw some beautiful countryside around Dublin where many movies were shot, and toured the city (passing by but not actually entering the Guinness brewery - I swear!). We left the UK and returned to homestays and relatives for the last few days of the break before school resumed.

Of course we had our share of incidents along the way....some lost passports and plane tickets, a heroic emergency glass break, "something strange going on here", a dip in the loch, some ungodly early flights, a lost wallet or two, lost bags, and some more lost passports....all of which added a few grey hairs to the heads of the teachers. We managed to get through it all and made it back safe and sound. The group genuinely enjoyed the trip and were generally a pleasure to deal with. These trips are always good for meeting new people, learning about new places, interacting with each other in a different setting, and having a good time. Some of the older students and Mr Denney and I enjoyed renewing our friendships with Sam and Diana, the first two Gappies at Stanstead from '00-'01, who both joined us for a few days.

Eric Grenier

Mr. Grenier was hired in 2000 to re-start the long dormant music programme at Stanstead College. Educated at B.C.S. for his high school years and Marianopolis, McGill, and Bishop's University for his post-secondary years, he arrived well-prepared to step into the multi-faceted role of teacher at a private school.

Mr. G had to build the music department from the ground up – arranging the acquisition of equipment, designing the curriculum, and teaching all groups. This was no easy feat, but it was something he did with care and commitment, both of which have become words associated with his tenure here in everything he did or touched. In addition to the core music programme in the junior grades, he started a school band which grew to include between twenty and thirty of the most talented and enthusiastic musicians from all grades in the school. This group worked quickly to establish their repertoire of songs and performed with a high degree of quality and enthusiasm at various school functions over the years under his guidance.

Mr. Grenier also taught English to the Grade 9's, encouraging them to strive for excellence in everything they produced of a literary nature, and for an understanding of meanings both obvious and subtle in required course readings. He challenged all students, including some for whom English was not their mother tongue, to attain at levels which they did not feel were possible but over time they did learn to achieve. Without exception, students feel lucky to have had Mr. Grenier as a teacher.

On the sports field, Mr. G earned the reputation of a coach who was committed to his athletes, his team, and his sport, be it on the rink or on the soccer or rugby field. His enthusiasm rubbed off on his charges, who emulated the work ethic of their coach and spent countless hours as groups or individuals working diligently on improving their skills and preparing for their upcoming opponents. It became a little bit of a joke when his practices lasted through the afternoon and into the early evening, but the students loved to be out there with him.

As the first coach of the bantam/junior girls rugby programme (prior to this we had had only the one girls' team), his legacy was to initiate a group of 25 or more girls into this wonderful sport, and to see them grow and develop over time. A few years later, in his last game as a coach at Stanstead, he led the Senior Girls' Rugby Team (which included many of those same girls) to the ETIAC Championship at home in a great game won in overtime over BCS. What a perfect ending to a short coaching career! People like Mr. Grenier do not come along very often. He is a gentleman of character and integrity. He is a dedicated teacher who fulfills all of his many roles at school – teacher, coach, supervisor, advisor, mentor, colleague, musician, Icemen, friend – with caring and commitment. As he and Marie-Josée wed this summer and move to a new life and career in Lac Megantic, we know that it is not without some regret. Mr. G has a gift for teaching and just as he will miss this life, we at Stanstead will also miss him greatly. He has touched many in his short time here, and we wish him all the best in the years to come. Happily, he will be just a few hours down the road and will therefore be able to visit often.

With much love and respect,
The Sub-Committee

Julie Smith

Straight out of Burgessville, Ontario, Julie Smith came to Stanstead College in the autumn of 1999, after completing her Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Education at Queen's University. She arrived on campus armed with a solid background in Biology and Physical Science, an interest in basketball, and an eagerness to become an active member of a boarding school environment. That first year was spent growing accustomed to the frenetic pace and commitment required of a faculty member here at Stanstead. Julie lived on campus, was a TOD in Colby House, coached junior boys' basketball, and survived teaching 5 new courses for the first time in her career. But unlike some boarding school rookies, she did not spend her free time bemoaning the fact that she was extraordinarily busy. Instead, she quickly accepted the demands placed upon her, even embraced them, and began to thrive in the Stanstead College pressure-cooker. This is clearly evidenced by the two events that highlight and help define Julie's time at the College. These two events are also a testament to her dedication, courage, and passion for the boarding school experience. Firstly, after a year of apprenticeship, Julie took over the Spectrum in 2001, filling the unfillable shoes of Peter Ashworth, who had over the years, with the help of Paul Duncan, turned Stanstead's version of the Yearbook into the yardstick by which all other yearbooks are measured. It is a testament to Julie's bravery and selflessness that she not only accepted this responsibility, but also successfully carried on the tradition of excellence. The Spectrum remains the best high school yearbook that most of us will ever see. Julie's leadership and commitment are large reasons why. Secondly, while most staff are hired into residential duty as a pre-condition of their first-time employment at a school, Julie did the unthinkable and volunteered to become the House Director (not the Assistant HD) of the Junior Girls' residence in 2001. Abandoning her lifestyle and the friendly confines of Farmhouse West for the close quarters of Colby House, she undertook the daunting task and monumental challenge of being the parent to 40 young girls living away from home. As her Director of Student Life during that time, I can unequivocally state that she performed the myriad duties of that position with competence, dedication, and most importantly, care. Many young girls will fondly remember Julie for the rest of their lives.

As will we. Throughout her all-too-short time here, Julie developed into a true boarding school person, who did all she did for the purest of reasons; for the kids. Good luck at Bayview Glen, Smitly. Keep in touch, and come back to visit, as there will always be a lawn chair with your name on it in the backyard.

Erik Van Dyke

Phil Dunn

Phil came to Stanstead for the 2001-2002 school year as a Gap student and he was expected to spend one year working in ESL, athletics, and coaching. He lived in Davis 216 and did a super job in all respects. So well did he do his job, in fact, that Mr. Shannon decided to offer him the chance to return to Stanstead this past year, 2002-2003, as a residential don. He tripled his salary, moved into a nice apartment in Bugbee, added Phys. Ed. and some other duties to his job description, and proceeded to have another excellent year. Phil has an endearing quality about him which makes him able to relate to the students without seeming bossy or trying to be cool. They respect him and genuinely like to be around him. He also carried himself well with the adults in the community, gaining their respect for the enthusiasm, maturity, and helpfulness he brought to his role. It is rare for someone as young as Phil to receive such accolades from his peers both younger and older. The ESL kids really took to Phil, and despite not being able to understand a word he said, enjoyed the youth and humor he brought to his classes with them. In terms of Phys. Ed., Phil took over the junior school classes this year, and he was always ready to play soccer with them - fall, winter, or spring. In fact, Phil never missed an opportunity to play with the mixed group who played soccer on the small field during their free time. This was not part of his job description, but something that he loved to do and something that the students really appreciated. Phil coached soccer, basketball, and rugby. While more experienced with soccer and rugby, Phil also became a knowledgeable apprentice coach in basketball. He enjoyed team travel and managed to see many places across Canada (including Shaniwaga) and made new friends. On long weekend breaks, he often accompanied the organized school trips, and during the Spring Break in March of '02, Phil joined the tour group traveling across Canada by train. All in all, Phil has managed to get a lot out of his time here, and we have certainly gotten a lot out of Phil. As he moves on to university in the fall, we wish him the best of luck and thank him for his two years of commitment to the school. Keep in touch!

All the best, Paddie,

The Sub-Committee

Suzanne Petraki

Suzanne Petraki joined the Admissions' team to replace Joanne Carruthers as the Assistant Director of Admissions in February, 2002, while Joanne was away from the school on a one year maternity leave. As a former parent of two graduates, and former member of the Board of Trustees, Suzanne arrived on the job endowed with a first hand awareness of the school and its programs – well equipped to assume her new role in admissions. Her warm, nurturing personality, knowledge of the Stanstead philosophy and culture of the school were instrumental in ensuring an easy transition as she moved into Joanne's office. Once installed, she responded to inquiries from prospective families and assisted with recruitment initiatives, advertising, and on-campus family visits. She connected comfortably with students, parents and faculty alike. Suzanne enjoyed her year's experience in Admissions as every day presented new challenges that she met and dealt with in a thorough, professional manner. She has a passion for the school and a sincere interest in the students' well-being. Suzanne was extremely helpful when relating to families as a result of her own personal experience and involvement within the Stanstead community. Although her busy year was over all too quickly, she clearly left her mark with the families and students with whom she dealt. Suzanne still keeps in touch and we look forward to her campus visits.

Cynthia Baldwin

Cynthia Baldwin leaves Stanstead College after a twelve-year career as the laboratory and technology assistant. Her expertise in setting up lab experiments for all of our biology, chemistry, and physics courses will be sadly missed. Over the course of her work here, Miss Baldwin has helped countless students design and carry out superb projects for both the Junior and Senior Science Fairs. Miss Baldwin plans to use her Environmental Quality Control degree from Mount Royal College in Calgary, Alberta to enter the field of research. We will miss her, and we wish her luck in the future.

The end of the year
Many choices - no answer
This is part of life.
